FIGURES ANOTHER CUT

Buzz Secreted in Room Goes Over Squad With Microscope and Cut Is Coming.

[By G. H. Townsley.]
DELAWARE, Ohio, April 14.— Weather today interfered with the program of the Londoners, and they had to stay under the shelter, while "J. Plu" held forth.
Buzz was not content with allowing his aggregation to go without a day's work, so he sent them to the cages in the university gym for a grilling. Early today the outfield got out on the field in togs and had just started, passing the horse-hide, when suddenly the sun skipped out of the sky, and it rained torrants.
It was a case of swim both outside and inside then. Following the drenching of the crowd on the lot, they took a plunge in the swimming pool. During the afternoon the men were given a lecture and a practice in the cages.

Malmquest in.
Nobility has requested except Malmquest, who got in last night.
He was radiant with enthusiasm for the old togs. He figures the national pastime is off on the greatest season it has yet seen.

The boys are enjoying the hospitality of this quiet little college here who followed the game from its infancy, and the most of them are well posted on the shifts in major league play here are strong for the Indians because of the Ohio pride, but when it comes to the National League, they are divided in their sympathy between the Cincinnati Reds and Branch Rickey's Cards. Branch is a product of Ohio Wesleyan University here and learned the game while in college.
After his graduation he spent a time coaching athletes here, and developed some of the greatest grinders Ohio has ever had. Fana have followed him through his major league experiences, and are strong for him every year regarding his prospects. So it's this soap box philosophy and chatter that the Canadians are hearing these rainy days and evenings.

The vets on Wetzel's team can jabber that with the veteran fans, and so the dope goes.

Buzz Pleading Cut.
This afternoon Buzz was found secreted in his hotel room, trying to dope out his rookie crowd and make some cuts. He was not sure who will win the north, with the leaguers, but it is evident there will be another slaughter about Monday.

It is understood he is to give some of the lads in this district a chance in the Sunday meeting with the Moose here. He not even hinted who will be dropped off during the next two weeks of training.

Detrick, the lad recommended by Billy Doyle, is still sticking, although Buzz declared the first day the kid donned the togs, his time would be cut mighty short.

April 18—Entries Must will get started shortly, with practically every school nine in the city in line. The rules governing the league this year are:

Principal or male assistant must accompany each team.For first series the referees are to be agreed upon by the principal or male assistant of schools concerned.
Games called at 4:30 and to be of seven innings. Semi-finals and finals

Each team is to supply a regulation ball.All disputes must be in writing and handed or sent to secretary within 24 hours after game.
All teams wishing to enter league should send in notice before the 15th of April, as the schedule will be drawn up on the 15th. Any of the committee may be notified, president, secretary,

SPEAKS AT BRANTFORDAddresses Rally of Prohibitionists and Replies to "Anti" Arguments.BRANTFORD, April 14.—The local dry forces held an enthusiastic referendum meeting at First Congregational Church tonight. Mrs. Gordon Wright of London, sister of Hon. N. W. Rowell, addressed the gathering, which was made up largely of women. She scored the "anti" speakers, and answered statements made by Stephen Leacock, Provost Macklem and Charles Windle.Transient Traders.
Local merchants at a meeting today took up the matter of transient traders' licenses, and an attempt will be made to have the present licensing system improved. At present new business firms are asked $100 when they open, and this amount is taken over by the city, if the business is not continued for a year's time. The merchants believe that action should be taken to bar transient traders altogether from doing business here.Music Question Up.
In the report of the management committee of the board of education tendered at tonight's meeting of the board, an attempt was made to bring the controversy over musical teaching in the schools to a head. Some time ago the musical teaching was ordered discontinued, as the board had not sanctioned it, though the teachers were paid by a school society. An attempt will be made to have the teaching authorised by the board, and have the city pay for the teachers.Perhaps you want a domestic in a President T. H. Yull is anxious to get the boys out as soon as possible, and they'll probably turn out in their new sweaters

The question of making the

Lots of Action in Ontario Boxing Championships

TORONTO, April 14.—It the Ontario boxing championships at the arena tonight fifteen bouts were decided in the 100-pound, 103-pound, 115-pound and 125-pound classes. Nearly all the contestants represented Toronto clubs.

There were five knockouts, four bouts were stopped to prevent knockouts, and six went the three rounds to a decision. Doig, of the Riverside Club, who was expected to go through to the finals in the 100-pound class, was knocked out in his first bout by Gibbard of the Classics, in an extra round.

Mrs. Ball League
Gets Started Out
On Season May 16Five Teams Certainities At Last Night's Meeting in Brisco's.

The Manufacturers' Baseball League will open at Queen's Park on May 16, it was decided at an enthusiastic meeting held last night in Brisco's store, with Grand Trunks and McClarys slated to put the first hate-test on.
Last night, there were five teams certain for the league. There are several more applications in, but as only six teams are wanted, one club has practically received the choice.
The league executive will have the same powers this year of leaving the constitution in the case of weak teams and building them up. However, with the new rules, three outside players in the case of individual clubs, and one in the case of combined teams, there should be little necessity of having to strengthen teams.
The "Cap" Graham is again official statistician of the circuit.
The teams already in are: Bolt and Hinge-London Hosiers, G. T. R., Mc-Clarys, Greene-Swift and Civil Service.

Behind New Town A. A. A.

HARRISTON, April 14.—At a public meeting held in the council chamber tonight, at which only a fair attendance was present, the question of forming an athletic association was thoroughly discussed by Mr. D. P. McFarlane, president of the board of trade, Mayor Fawcett, Principal Hobbs of the High School, Barry Whitmore, A. B.
Whetstone, A. E. Eddy and others, when it was unanimously agreed to call a public meeting of the ratepayers for Wednesday evening, April 20, to more thoroughly discuss this important question. Upon the conclusion of this topic the reorganization of the baseball club took place, and the following officers were elected for the coming season:
President, W. F. Brisbane; secretary, C. Welch; manager, A. J. Harford; executive committee, Messrs. C. L. Eddy, A. E. Whetstone, L. J. Merriam. It is expected that both junior and intermediate teams will be entered in the North Wellington League this coming season.
