Russian Nihilists Preparing For Another Political Assassination-The Police Notified.

London, Jan. 29.—The approaching visit of the Grand Duke of Luxenburg to the that the object of the visit is to discuss the adoption of a military convention between Prussia and Luxenburg and bring within control of the Germans a place that has been and can again be made the strongest fortress in Europe. Instead of Prussia baking the initiative toward the military annexation of Luxenburg, the Kaiser has care-France and Germany, would be the prey of the first troops that would succeed in reaching it, and these would probably be French, for not much faith is placed by the Luxen-burgers in the guarantee of their neutrality by the great powers, now that they are diversed from the crown of Holland entry are six some degree useless. Dr. Parker, in the temple service, to-day, condemned in the strongest language the assault, as he characterized it, on the foundations of the British constitution. The Non-conformists everynce of the process of the strongest language the assault excited: inwhere are greatly excited; in-deed, much more than the established deed, much more than the established church people, who are not disposed to treat the matter as of serious importance. The Liberal leaders are very much hurt that Hennessey should have taken such a step without their consent, which, of course, would never have been given, and they connect his action with the circumstance that since the precise of realisment. stance that since the opening of parliament he has been hobnobbing a good deal, social-ly, with his old friends, the Tories. Deling as the English Liberals do upon nor nessey is not a more serious blow to the Irish cause in England than was the Parnell divorce exposure. Gladstone has decided to oppose the Hennessey amendment, and, in reply to an inquiry, he has written to the landon correspondents of the III the its words or in its policy, to any condition under which the Royal family holds the crown of Great Britain. The Tories and their allies, the dissenting Lihersls, are unwilling, however, to look at the matter in that light, as they are holding forth everywhere that Gladstone has permitted himself to be made a tool of, by those who desire to assail the act of settlement and undermine the work of the evolution of 1689.

PRIVATE BANKS SUPPRESSED IN BUENOS the movement. It is said that the revolutionists have declared their purpose to proclaim and establish a republic. At the moment the above dispatch left Oporto, the loyalists and rebels were fighting in the streets, and, it is believed, many on both reach of the official strings and schemes by which the national banks have been plun dered of their deposits in a way that seems to eclipse any public robberies heretofore revealed in other parts of the world. For-eign capital in use in Buenos Ayres will now have to go into the national banks or be withdrawn from bank deposit altogether.

RUSSIA FORTIFYING HER FRONTIERS. Russia is fortifying her frontier over against Germany, and has lately increased the garrisons in that quarter. This is done, it is claimed, in the interest of peace. Each frontier, that of Austria and that of Germanier, that of Austria and that of Germanier. many, is now guarded on the Russian side by a force of 28 regiments and four batal-lions, while an additional force of 400,000 men could be thrown into Austria-Poland or Silesia from Russia within ten days. Rou-mania, on the other hand, has erected fortions on the Russian frontier that rival in strength anything of the kind in Central or Southern Europe, and it is estimated these defences could successfully resist the attack of six hundred thousand Russians.

BALMACEDA'S CAUSE HOPELESS. A Paris dispatch says that the Chilian residents there look upon Balmaceda's cause as hopeless. Advices by way of Buenos Ayres state that several members of the Chilian congress, who took refuge on the fleet when the rebellion began, have landed, and are now directing the operations of the insurgent troops on land.

PREPARING FOR THE ELECTIONS. London, Jan. 31 .- The British Government are doing their utmost to push forward the preparation of the estimates, in view of dissolution. An early announcement is expected of the withdrawal of cer; tain "leading" measures and the substituting of others, prominent among the latter being a measure of local government for Ireland. A cabman residing at Beaconsfield-Nelson-had a narrow escape. Rearing the noise he drove down from Main street to see the animals rush out. He likened the scene to the exit from Noah's ark. An elephant came first, and a few seconds afterward tumbled out a confused mob of lions, wolves, hyenas, baboons, leopards, cheetahs and jackals. The wolves, with the instinct of their race, immediately rushed upon Nelson's horses and two of the lions attacked them too. Strange to say, they left the man unmolested, and he managed to climb up a post at Glover's athletic car and secure his safety in one of the rooms. When last he saw his horses they were galloping madly down the road snorting and screaming with fear and pain, followed by the wolves and two of the lions. The remainder of the animals. Nelson says, dispersed in all directions. But few of the animals had been re captured at the time the mail was dispatched, but one of the lions and a jackal had been shot.
