The Sad Story of the Strasburg (Water-

BERLIN, Oct. 13.—Enquiry into the Stras-

Chief MoFeggan of Gait testified that on the journey from Harrisburg, where the arrest took place, prisoner admitted his guilt to him and said that he had to do it. He stated that he was a victim of a secret vice, that when he yielded himself to its practice he could not control his own actions, and that certain letters taken from him at Harrisburg would show why he did it. The constable's evidence as to the alleged confession caused quite a sensation in icourt. It was corroborated by Constable DeKay of Berlin who drove prisoner from Preston to Berlin. A small bundle of clothes, letters and papers was produced. There were several letters to the prisoner under the name of J. Boster from Dr. R. V. Plerce, Main street, Buffalo, N. Y. The prisoner under the name of J. Boster from Dr. R. V. Plerce, Main street, Buffalo, N. Y. The prisoner under the name of J. Boster from Dr. R. V. Plerce, Main street, Buffalo, N. Y. The prisoner under the name of J. Boster from Dr. R. V. Plerce, and giving him religious counsel and advice. A cabinet photograph, said to be of his mother, and another cabinet of the prisoner himself as a little boy, were also produced from the bundle. That of prisoner looked like the picture of a gentleman's son. The letters and papers sent to him while in this country, were directed in his true name, but those sent to him from England while hwas in New York state were directed J. Bosler.

Notwithstanding the grave charge against the testing while! most per vice the rife regiment while waking the present on night, having been given the rife regiment while waking the testers have to night, having been given the rife regiment while waking the testers have to night, having been given the rife regiment while waking the present on night, having been given the rife regiment while waking the present on night, having been given the rife regiment while waking the present on night, having been given the rife regiment while waking the present on night, having been given the rife regiment while waking the rife reg

A Reyal Work.

VIENNA, Nov. 13.—The national press, printing the first serial number of "Austria and Hungary in word and picture," has just been issued. It is edited under the personal direction of the Crown Prince Rudolph, and will be issued fortnightly. The Crown Prince Rudolph has written a preface and two chapters for the work, and the Crown Princess Stephanie has furnished anumber of landscape drawings.

been less than to	vo thousand.	The teams we
Victorias. Beddoe		Galt Town
Gordon	backs	}Pollo
N. Anderson	half backs	McKendri
McKinley !	r. forwards	Kallah
W. Thomson. }	c. forwards	Killm
Elliott	l. forwards Cherry of Pre	f Park

	eleven and Guit	C. I. (seniors),	WHOSE CEATH
n p	were: Victoria 2nd 11.	75.7	Galt C.
t	Milne	goal	Galbrait
e	Wood	backs.	Bak
g	Donald		Murra
1,	Wrong	backs.	Gree
	Apsey	right forwards.	Edge
S	Thomson	centre (Gree
e	Meldrum	left (Webste
n	Forrester The game wat	forwards. (enly conteste
s.	from start to fini chiefly at the Ga tute forwards ma	sh, and although it end of the fl ade good use of	eld, the Inst

The Soldiers Boised.

Limerick, Nov. 13.—A party of soldiers belonging to the rifle regiment while walking in the streets here to night, having been given permission to leave the barracks, was attacked and stoned by a crowd of roughs. The soldiers so bolded and made their way back to barracks. The mob was dispersed by the police. Large pickets parade the streets to preserve peace. The mob was dispersed by the police. Large pickets parade the streets to preserve peace. A party of gentlemen, composed of Col, J. D. Biggard of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived at the Queen's hotel last evening from the Musicoka of the streets have been given been given by the most successful by gof the sea-on, comprising 5 deer, 120 reparting on the Musicoka of the general agents for the Western the general agents for the Western Assurance company for the Southern Assurance company for the Southern thates. They were accompanied on the expedition by Mr. A. W. Dodd, the accompanied on the expedition by Mr. A. W. Dodd, the subsets of the company for the United States, and A. Whiteman Smith, a well known is surance man. As the game cannot be exported to the United States, they intend to distribute it amongst their many friends in the streets the presence of the company for the United States, and A. Whiteman Smith, a well known is surance man. As the game cannot be exported to the United States, they intend to distribute it amongst their many friends in the streets the streets and the streets of the western company for the States, and A. Whiteman Smith, a well known is surance man. As the game cannot be exported to the United States, they intend to distribute it amongst their many friends in the streets the streets and the streets of the streets and the streets of the streets and the streets of t

GUELPH, Ont., Nov. 13.—Matthews' hotel, situated on the line between Guelph and Eramosa townships, was comp etely destroyed by fire last night. The stable and all the outbuildings were all totally consumed, together with their contents. Mr. Matthews and family escaped in their night clothes, the fire having made such headway when they were awakened that nothing could be saved. To alloss about $3000; insured for $1500 in the Wellington Mutual.

inroughout the length and breadth of the city yesterday our soldier schoolboys gripped their wooden guns and swords and squared their shoulders in anticipation of participating in the review by Major-General Sir Fredmisch

SIXTH TEAR

THE PARADURY TEAR

T

secre of sick people were hurrieally removed during the conflagration, and man ladie are reported prostrated to day with the terrible excitement of feeing from their comfortable homes. Following close on the heels of the great strike, which inflicted a moneyed loss on the busines men of Galveston of tally $400.00, this calamity is a climax to the wose and sore afflictions of the city. It is estimated by the relief committee that, about 1000 families were remiered homeless, the great majority of whom, especially the proper ones, lost everything.

At the cotton exchange $17.500 was subscribed to the relief fund. Jay Gould has telegraphed $5000.

The cy council met in special session this evening and voted donation of $15 000 for the sufferers. This makes $31.500 already donated by the citizens of Galveston, which, together with outside donations, foots up a total of $83.000. The loss is generally estimated at from two to two and one-half millions. The total amount of insurance thus far ascertained is $980,730.

Just imagine: 25 per cent. off.

Just imagine! 25 per cent, off. Goods so cheap tha without the alsount they're a bargain. Far-ley's Bon Marche.

The Illinois Central Strike. The Anti-Chinese Crusade.

SANTA CRUZ, Nov. 12.—Chinese laundrymen and woodcutters at Lorenzo and Boulder creek, in this county, were last night given twenty-four hours notice to leave, and are to-day packing up. No violence was used, and the Chinamen have agreed to go without further prety-st.

Twenty-nine men from Tacoma, W. T., arrested in connection with the anti-Chinese crusade, have been released on bail of $5000 each.

Astonishingly low prices in Gent's Furnishings at the Bon Marche, and 25 to 50 per cent. discount off.

Ceneral Middleton Inspects the Soldier Schoe boys.

Throughout the length and breadth of the city yesterday our soldier schoolobys gripped their wooden guns and swords and squared their shoulders in anticipation of participat.

Mr. Taber Gets His Diverce. CHICAGO, Nov. 13 .- No change in the strike

Jury said their opponents worked the machine for all it was worth in municipal matters; the reformers should do battle in the same way against them.

The first opposition to the motion came from Ald. Modillan. Mr. Ryan had alluded to the printing contract awarded to the Orange Sentinel as a flagrant piece of corruption on the part of conservative and Orange aldermen. The St. James ward alderman considered this reference to Orangemen as very bad taste on the part of Mr. Ryan, and in a general way stigmatized that gentleman's remarks at the greatest piece of rot he had seven heard. He objected to the wholesale dennuciation of the conservative party; there were plenty of honest and decent men among them. He was prepared it endough the properties and many them. He was prepared to the introduction of party politics into municipal matters. "Elect men to the countie to subscure they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and not because they are good and honest citizens and or many them. Mr. Ryan wished the reformance is the party every time. Mr. Ryan corrected his he had spoken disrespectfully about the head, and all the from tupper teeth kicked out. Armitage came to head and or many the work are many the party and the party every time. Mr. Ryan corrected his head and of it was a holiday; yesterday he was so ill that he could not come out. Dr. King, who is the politics. He would care no more for the politics. He would care no more for the words conservative and Orangeman were now regarded as synonomous, although he knew several prominent brethren who were reformers. Religion, said Mr. at Ryan, had nothing to do with his stand in said in the stand i

Figure by making to an electric state of the control of the contro

PRICE ONE CENT

the memory of the late Hon. George Brown why not use it in fencing around the abument?

Toronto, Nov. 13. The General Was Huns

Carnival at the Metropolitan-A Three Bollar and a Mast Horse.

Ladies! On the table of Velveteeus in the Bon Marche 35 per cent less than bottom prices.