"No, they cannot. I am aware that the owners of one or two strings have contemplated such as scheme, but they cannot. Queen's Platers must be bred, raised and trained in Ontarlo."
"Bo you think the prospects are bright?"
"I do, brighter than ever. Our membership is constantly increasing, more horees are being brought to Canada and those of a higher price, and our province breds are both more numerous and of a higher class than they ever were before. Oh, yes, the outlook is most satisfactory. It is true I would like to see one or two of our failway kingsfurther their own interests and come into the sport as Meesrs. getting Canadian news by way of Chigetting Canadian news by way of Uni-cage." O, sir, that is nothing very singular. The London Times gets its dominion intelligence from Philadelphia. The Can-adian newspapers get their foreign news from New York, and the New York press get their Irish items from London. These freaks of nature ought to be consigned to a dime museum, and shown with the other curiosities, to an admiring public.
