Greatest Banquet Ever Held in Sarnia

Sarnia, Jan. 28.—To-night 100 of the Councillors and ex-Councillors of the county of Lambton sat down together at the greatest banquet ever held in the city. Former Wardens and Councillors of this county who were representing the people back in the eighties were present, while others who came after them, but who have left the boundaries of the county, were present from cities as distant as Toronto, Fort Frances and Detroit. Mayor Doherty gave an address of welcome. The Chairman, Wm. Nesbitt, an ex-Warden, gave a short, interesting history of the growth of the county from the early times when Essex, Kent and Chatham were one, He remarked that Mr. Hall of Warwick, present Warden of the county, and himself, were the only ones present who had fathers that were former Wardens of had, fathers that were former Wardens of the Council. Toasts were proposed and responded to by Robert Stirrett, Mayor of Petrolea; John Farrell, Government Immigration Agent, who hinted that the Government were taking steps which it was expected would help farmers in the shortage of labor, which will be ex-periented next year; A. J. Johnson, Col. Kenward of Watford; United States Con-sul States of Sarvia, and others sul Slater of Sarnia, and others.

Reeve Turnbull, of Lobo, was elected Warden of Middlesex by acclamation. This is the first time in many years that a warden of that county has been elected by acclamation.

"I Did Not Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier"

That is very true, mother! But, mother, think of this: Can you feel that your boy is acting honorably, that he is doing his duty by his country and his God, if he turns a deaf ear to the call to arms, if he does not help old England and the Empire in the hour of need, if he lets other men, other mothers' boys, fight his battles for him? Mother, you want your boy to do his duty, to be brave and true and strong, to be loyal to his King, his Country and his God. Duty calls !- and 'though it's hard to part, mother,—yet—you don't want your boy to be a shirker.
