EASTERN EXTENSION.—The contract for building the railway between New Glasgow and Canso has been taken by Abbott & Co. of Montreal.

—Edward Joseph, of Montreal, son of the late J. G. Joseph of Toronto, was stung on the lips by an insect, and death resulted in about four days.

—The late fine weather has been favorable to hay-making; and the barns already contain large quantities of excellent cattle fodder.

—Large schools of Mackerel are reported along the southern shore of the Province. Those taken are of good quality.

Last week, a farm laborer, working on the farm of Mr. A. Vidito, near Bridgetown, and the misfortune to cut his arm very badly with a scythe.

—These are dog-days, and this is traditionally the most unhealthy time of the year. Physicians advise a moderate use of cucumbers. We have not yet heard of single case of summer cholera.

—A train on the Central Pacific, it is reported in San Francisco, on Friday, July 28th, ran over and killed a man near Truckee, who was found to have been lashed to the track by parties unknown.

—Eight hundred immigrant Icelanders have arrived at Quebec. They contemplate the formation of a new settlement in Manitoba. They are said to belong to a hardy race of excellent moral tendencies.

—A Paris paper says the ex-Empress Eugenie will marry again. The happy man is Lord "Dunlop," and nobody seems to know who he is. It is only known who he isn't—his name, that is to say, is not in the peerage.

—Since the first of May, David Small, of Ludlow, has killed seven bears, the skins of which bring him about seventy dollars, besides thirty-five dollars State bounty. Hunting bears in Aroostook is still a profitable pastime.—Aroostook Pioneer.

—An official Railway employee on the Intercolonial line, whose office was located at Moncton, N. B., has absconded, taking with him, (as is supposed), funds belonging to the railway department. The runaway's name is Brush. He has been heard from in Boston.

—More than once of late a marauding bear has been seen by wayfarers on the Morse Road on this side of the South Mountain. It is said there are evidences that he is a sheep-thief. He is undoubtedly a legitimate object for the summary exercise of Lynch Law.

—A London correspondent says that there is not a woman who enjoys more robust health than the Queen. Victoria is stout, with somewhat of redness in her hue, and probably was never better in her life than at this moment. She bids fair to live as long as her grandfather, the third George, did; and if she does, the Prince of Wales will be a grey-headed old man, with grandchildren, before he comes to the throne.

—The Y. M. C. Association of this town, held their annual meeting last evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz:—Minor Tupper, Esq., President, J. B. Reed, and Charles Hill, Vice Presidents, Brother Thomas Shaw, Treasurer, Brother Walter Saunders, Secretary. After the election of officers, Brother Tupper invited the members to partake of a sumptuous repast which he had provided for the occasion. All present enjoyed the evening's entertainment immensely. After a vote of thanks to Brother Tupper for his hospitality, the first annual meeting broke up, feeling that another year had been entered upon under very favorable auspices.

—In a window on one of the New York avenues is this announcement: "This is the celebrated Umbrella and Parasol Hospital. Doctor's hours from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. Broken bones and ribs set without pain or chloroform. No incurable cases sent out. Drs. M. W. & Co., always in attendance. Invalids called for and sent home."

—The Miners, now on a strike, at Sydney, C. C., are laboring most riotously. Mr. Manager Brown was fired at last week. The rioters have been tearing up the railway track, and committing other outrageous depredations; and a company of volunteers was sent to the mines to put a stop to the excesses.

BEAT THIS.—R. H. Bath, has on hand a lot of the Celebrated Howe Sewing Machines. This machine is the best in the world, and warranted. He now offers them at 25 per cent. off of price list to close consignment. Intending purchasers would do well to call at once and secure one.

—The basement of the Baptist Church, that is being erected at Paradise, is already externally finished. It is built of brick. The main building is to be of wood; and, if completed according to the designed plan, it will be a handsome structure, located in a beautiful part of our valley. Nothing is more creditable to a country than its ecclesiastical edifices.

O'NEIL'S FATE.—Mr. R. J. Ritchie's second effort for O'Neil's commutation has been unsuccessful. Under Secretary of State, Langevin, informing him that the Government will not order the death sentence to be stayed. O'Neil will, therefore, be hanged August 3rd. He is being attended daily by Rev. Mr. Michaux and appears truly penitent.—St. John News.

—It is noticeable that the Black Hills furor has not raged so furiously among the youth of our land since the arrival of news from Gen. Custer's command. Many a boy who ten days ago was saving up his pennies to buy a walk road ticket and a revolver, now rails out into the back yard and cuts himself without a murmur.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

—At a tea meeting recently held in Calais in the Congregational Vestry, among valuable and interesting relics exhibited was the silk scarf worn by Gen. Wolfe at the battle of Quebec (now the property of Mr. Albert Reed of that city), in which Gen. Wolfe was carried from the field after receiving his death wound on the plains of Abraham in 1759. The sash, which is very large, is still stained with the blood of the dying hero.

—Most of our readers will remember that Colonel Valentine Baker, a special favorite of the Prince of Wales, was deprived of his military position and rank by the Queen in consequence of rude and indecent behaviour to a respectable young lady in a railway carriage. He was tried for this offence in a civil court, and the penalty of fine and imprisonment was imposed. He was released a few days ago, and has accepted a commission in the Turkish army.

STRATTON, July 28.—Yesterday Mr. John Mungovan, a farmer living in North Easthope, near Stratton, came home from the market, and after stabling his horse and going to his room cut his throat with a razor. He then went to another room where his father was and struck him on the back. The old man turned round and was horrified on seeing his son with a frightful gash in his neck. A neighbor who was there thrust a handful of feathers into the cut and partially staunches the flow of blood. Mungovan is still alive, but in a precarious condition.

DEATH OF A WATERLOO HERO.—Wm. Willis, aged 84 (late of the 52nd Light Infantry), died in the Easthampton Union Workhouse, England, on the 7th inst. Willis had seen a great deal of service during the time he was in the 52nd, and was present at the battle of Waterloo, where he was slightly wounded. He was awarded the Waterloo medal, and a pension of 10s. 6d. a week upon his discharge from his regiment. The Duke of Cambridge, upon hearing that Willis was in the workhouse, upon several occasions sent him remittances.

NEW CHURCH ORGAN.—We are informed by Messrs. McCarthy & Cook, St. John, N. B., that the new organ for the Baptist Church in this town, will arrive in a few days.

This organ is being built to order by the Budget Organ Company of Erie, Penn., for whom Messrs. McCarthy & Cook are agents. It will contain twelve draw stops, twelve notes of Pedal Bass, Hand blown and two Banks of Keys.

The great Manual is five octaves in length, and the Swell has a length of three octaves, and they contain the following registers:

GRAND ORGAN.
Diapason, Melodia,
Cor Anglais, Flute,
Sub. Bass, Celeste,
Echo Horn.
SWELL ORGAN.
Viol D'Amore, Cello, Roman Pipe.
The Mechanical Stops are Harmonio, Coupler Swell to Grand Organ, Orchestral Knees Swell and Grand Organ.
Mr. Cook will accompany the organ and see it properly placed in the church.

PICOTU, July 28.—Captain G. W. Bunker, of the American barque Alexander Campbell, from Aberdeen for United States, reports: On Monday night, 24th, at 11.30, Cape Sambre W. by N. distant 60 miles, collided with unknown vessel, carrying away jibboom, bowsprit, outwater, upper head rails, &c. Made for Picotu for repairs and arrived this evening. Damage to other vessel unknown, but supposed more serious. At the time the weather was hazy. The Campbell was close hauled on the starboard tack, and sounding proper alarm at horn; both vessels holding their course.

Hitherto Nova Scotia has been exempt from grasshoppers in destructive multitudes—from the potato-bug and other pests that infest some parts of the United States—and from the incursions of murderous Indians; but we are subject to other dreaded visitors that are scarcely less to be dreaded than any we have just mentioned; viz. organ grinders, itinerant minstrels, shows in variety, importunate book agents, and worse than all, circus exhibitions. These semi-fraudulent means to chisel Bluenose are too effective in their object. Such nuisances should be abated by moral force of public opinion. Barnum's raid upon this Province just now will relieve Nova Scotia of a considerable portion of its loose change.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of grasping our old friend, Mr. Thomas Hall, by the hand yesterday; Mr. H. has been several years absent from his native county, and it was with much satisfaction that we learned from him that he intends staying the winter with us. As a teacher of music, Mr. Hall has few superiors, having devoted the most of his life-time to the subject. Our friend informs us that he expects to form classes in various localities in this county, during the fall and winter, for the purpose of giving lessons in music, and as he is well known, we bespeak for those placing themselves under his tuition a thorough knowledge of music, if they attend to the instructions, he is so well qualified to give them.

—A man with one leg was lately arrested in St. Louis for general worthlessness. For the purpose of making capital out of his crippled condition he had six different letters written. One set forth that the leg had been lost while serving under the Confederate flag, at Seven Oaks; the second, that it had been cut off by a Missouri Pacific engine; the third, that a Kansas Pacific engine had performed the amputation; the fourth, that an Illinois engine had buried him and crushed his leg, necessitating it being cut off; the fifth, that a Tennessee coal bank had caved in and crippled him; and the last laid the blame of his condition upon an Arkansas saw mill. The authorities, not being disposed to encourage such contradictory statements, held him for further examination.

KILLED BY A RATTLE SNAKE.—SHOCKING FATE OF A BERRICK-FICKER.

PORTAGE, Pa., July 20.—On Monday morning last, Miss Sarah Goodloe, daughter of a prominent resident of this place, and two little girls, named Jennie Wagner and Laura Webb, went out in the Wyckoff Mountain to pick huckleberries. About ten o'clock, the Webb girl, returning to the village, was overtaken by a rattlesnake and was bitten on the neck. The young lady's father, accompanied by a cousin, friend, and Dr. Crane, hastened to the spot, guided by the girl. On reaching it a fearful sight presented itself. Miss Goodloe lay in convulsions on the ground, and her clothing was so torn and soiled that it was impossible to remove it. The snake had commenced to turn black. She was entirely unconscious, and was at once pronounced beyond all human aid. The snake had sunk his fangs deep into the calf of her leg in two places, and one of them was found hanging to her stocking. The doctor administered such remedies as are used in such cases, but the unfortunate young woman died in a few minutes after the arrival of her father and party. Her limbs were swollen so that the one bitten by the snake burst the skin. She died in the most intense agony. The circumstances attending the case are related by the little girl who survived. "The rattlesnake was on the top of the ridge and held his pail nearly full. Suddenly Miss Goodloe gave a loud scream, and dropping her pail, ran wildly out of the bushes to the house. My mother, seeing her so pale, ran to her, and she said, 'My God, a rattlesnake has bitten me!' She threw herself on the grass and commenced rolling and shrieking. The little Webb girl ran toward her and saw a portion of the snake, which seemed to be attacking Miss Goodloe. About half of the snake, from the rattle up, was exposed, and was sounding the latter in a manner denoting the greatest rage. The little girl, with singular bravery, seized the reptile by the tail and jerked it loose from Miss Goodloe and killed it with a club, before it got away. She then told the young lady that they had better start for home at once, and they hurried homeward, the two little girls assisting Miss Goodloe, who continued to grow ill from the effects of the bite, and finally dropped in convulsions at the spot where the Webb girl left her and hurried on for aid."

(Special Dispatches to the Morning Chronicle, EUROPE.)

The British man-of-war Spitfire is stationed at Wyndyk, and Arcturion at Little Pope. Vessels now in blockade ports are allowed thirty days to load and depart. It is not intended to attack Delahoy from sea. The available force will go in a mail boat to Porto Nova, thence to the capital."

Mundul Efidendi, Sultan of Turkey, is reported to be dying. Abdul Hamid Efidendi is the regent.

The Fall Mail Gazette says the defeat of the Montenegrins is the occasion of discomfiture at the Russian court, where Prince Nicholas has been petted.

Some of the Russian diplomats assert that the Montenegrins are the cause of the war spirit in Russia if the Turks invade Serbia.

Despatches from Paris reiterate the statement that the object of the Queen's visit to Spain is to arrange King Alfonso's marriage with the Infanta Mercedes, daughter of Duke Montpensier.

LONDON, July 28.—Colonial news is meagre. During the passage of the immigrant ship Windsor Castle, from London, the starboard wheel showed signs of mutiny by being seized from the crew. The captain obtained the assistance of fifty immigrants, and arming them, demanded the prisoner, who was surrendered. During the melee two natives and the carpenter were wounded.

Sixty thousand Chassepot Rifles, sold by Germany, have arrived in Serbia by way of Roumania.

Mr. Lloyd, the British representative in Serbia, is endeavoring to induce Prince Milan to make offer of reconciliation with the Turks by the means of a ship-builder.

A Paris special says it is reported that a duel occurred between De Moltke, nephew of the German Field Marshall, and Von Finck, both officers of the Imperial Guard in which the latter was mortally wounded.

STARVATION IN NEW YORK.

ONE OF THE WORST RESULTS OF THE PRESENT BUSINESS STAGNATION.

The sufferings among the poor of New York since the Sun, who are visited by the Rev. Dr. Tying's missionaries, are fearful. Every morning the basement of the church in Forty-second street is crowded with applicants for food, but the committee's treasury is so low, on account of the absence of the wealthy members of the church from the city, that many are turned away unrelieved. The sufferers are chiefly widows and young children, who, for lack of nourishment, are unable to withstand the intense heat. Some instances of actual starvation are mentioned. Complaints have been made against the wealthy congregations that send their ministers on costly European tours, and neglect their suffering poor members.

Among many cases of distress is that of a well-dressed, respectable woman, who called upon Dr. Tying's assistant pastor, Mr. Olmstead, almost fainting, and who he handed her a glass of soda water she took out a hard crust of bread and ate it ravenously. A widow and her young daughter and son, who are unable to find work, have been for some time living on $2 a week. In a garret, without any other furniture than an old dry goods box for a table, and a broken chair, live a widow and her five children. In a closet are a mattress and a blanket, which at night make a bed for the whole family. An aged woman who was once in affluent circumstances, was some time ago found nearly dead with hunger, and it was only by careful nursing that she was saved; she is still mainly dependent upon Dr. Tying's charities. A young man, whose family was gradually starving, was driven to despair and intent on suicide. He was relieved, and worked for a few days secured him. The child of another died on Saturday last, and not only was the father unable to bury it, but he was unable to provide food for his living family. A subscription list was raised in the gospel church.

These are only a few of the many cases with which Dr. Tying and his co-laborers have had to deal.—Boston Herald.

THE "ONEIDA'S" TERRIBLE VOYAGE.

From the Liverpool Post.]

The ship Oneida left London on Dec. 27th with a cargo of general merchandise. She had at 40 on board five chief cabin, nine second cabin, and nine third cabin passengers, all the cabins being on deck. On the 12th of March, about 3 a. m., the sea was lashed into fury, and tremendous bodies of water came in on board, the sea overrunning on both sides and almost burying the ship. The vessel was completely gutted, the port quarter by a sea which burst in the windows, and filled the saloon. The door of one of the second cabins was also stove, and the apartment filled. About 6 a. m. the sea, which continued to rise, and rolled in over port and starboard bulwarks, smashing in the doors of the midship house deck, and forcing its way through and through, completely gutted the cabin, the utter extermination of the passengers, who were all washed out of their berths, and were knocking about among the wreck of smashed partitions, broken chests, bedding, stores, &c., and in an agony of terror that they would be washed overboard. It was about this time that an infant of some fourteen months old named Willie Bell, son of one of the passengers, was washed by the sea from his mother's arms, and carried overboard beyond all hope of rescue. The unfortunate mother, nearly shivering, the same fate, but was seized by a broken partition into the next cabin. The baggage and effects of the second cabin passengers were also washed overboard. The women were taken into the cuddy and the men were lodged in the fore-cabin, and the sailors suffered with their clothing.

Messrs.—Darnley Laroque and Hugh McMullen, both farmers, who live two miles from Cumberland village, got into a dispute on the 20th inst. about McMullen's cows breaking into Laroque's grain field and Laroque setting the dog on them. The high words followed, a scuffle ensued, when McMullen planted a three-pronged table fork in Laroque's breast, to the left side of the breast bone, near the heart. Laroque was sent for at once, and did all that medical skill could devise, but Laroque died on Saturday the 22nd, following. McMullen, the Torbolton murderer, is still at large.
