SINCE the foregoing pages were sent to the press, I have procured Dr. Williams's pamphlet, entitled, An Inquiry into the Truth of the Tradition, concerning the Discovery of America, by Prince Madog ab Owen Gwynedd, and which I had long sought for in vain, not knowing its proper title. To this tract, and another he has since published*, I gladly refer the reader who wishes for further information concerning the Welch Indians. The Doctor appears to be a perfect master of the subject, and has bestowed much learned labour upon it. Most of the circumstances here related are contained in his pamphlets; the ancient historians and bards, who first recorded the exploits of Madog, are cited, and their characters defended. The author also largely answers the objections of Dr. Robertson, Lord Lytleton, and others, against their authority. From these publications I shall take the liberty of making the following extracts, tending to enlarge and confirm the testimonies already adduced.

No. XI.

*The First Discovery of the Welch Indians, by the Rev.
Morgan Jones, in the Year 1660.*

“ THESE presents may certify all persons whatever, that in the year 1660, being an inhabitant of Virginia, and Chaplain to Major General Bennet, of Mansoman County, the said Major Bennet and Sir William Berkeley sent two ships to Port Royal, now called South Carolina, which is sixty leagues to the southward of Capefair, and I was sent
