

CONTENTS.

v

Effects of lumbering—Woodstock—Accidents—The Valley of the St. John's—Fredericton—Arrange my party for the forest—Fatal accident—Reach St. John's city	71
--	----

CHAPTER V.

St. John's City—The Falls—Conference regarding roads—Commerce and resources of New Brunswick—Provisions for the forest—More tricks upon travellers—Journey to "the Bend"—An Accident—The tide at the Bend—Visit the mountain settlement—Commence exploring and surveying—Our first camp—Manner of working—A bush story—Sunday in the forest—Effects of pork and flies—Sources of rivers—Barrens—Wild animals—Rocks and plants—New Canaan River—Negro stories—The black bear—Rich land—Arrive at the N. W. angle of Westmoreland	96
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

A good line of country for road-making—How the woods are cleared, and roads made—Proposals for settlement—Royal Acadian rangers—Leave the camp to bring provisions—Encounter burnt land—Savannah grouse—Miserable bivouack—Reach the New Canaan settlement—It is described—Return towards the camp—Discover a lake in the woods—Wolves
--	--