

THE
CANADIAN CRAFTSMAN,
AND
MASONIC RECORD.

VOL. XXIV.

TORONTO, MARCH, 1890.

No. 9.

THE
Canadian Craftsman,

PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY

THE CANADIAN CRAFTSMAN PUB. CO. (LTD.),

AT

12 Melinda Street, Toronto.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—$1.50 per annum, or $1.00 if paid in advance.

ADVERTISING RATES.—Lodge or Business Cards of five lines, $5.00 per year. Contract rates will be furnished on application.

All Business Correspondence to be addressed to DANIEL ROSE, Manager, and Contributions to the Editor, W. J. HAMBLY, Mail Office.

St. Aldemar Commandery, St. Louis, has for its treasurer a brother named "Cash."

It may not be recollected that the Grand Lodge of Manitoba last year changed its time of meeting from February to June to take effect this year.

The Tyler, Grand Rapids, objects to representatives to Grand Lodge drawing ten cents per mile as mileage when the railroad fare averages but three cents. The objection is, we think, well taken.

The Master Mason, of St. Paul, says: "Judge John H. Brown, Past Grand Master of Minnesota is no more. He died at his home in Willmar on Monday, January 20th, and was buried under the auspices of the Grand Lodge, on the 24th.

Bro. Joseph H. Hough, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut, has entered on his fifty-second year of secretarial service. He is not only a venerable but a capable officer, and stands high in the estimation of the brethren in his jurisdiction where his manly qualities are known and appreciated.

Grand Master MacCalla, of Pennsylvania and editor of the Keystone, Philadelphia, does not spare himself when Masonic duties demand his attention. He is continually making official visitations and doing all he can to make Masonry progressive in every sense of the word.

At the recent meeting of the Grand Lodge of Michigan at Lansing, John S. Cross, of Bangor, was elected Grand Master, and Wm. P. Innes, of Grand Rapids, Grand Secretary. Grand Lodge donated three thousand dollars to the Michigan Masonic Home. The next meeting will be held at Grand Rapids.

The South African Freemason, says: "Masonic charity should look at one