We have been presented with a sample of oats raised on Pine Lake Farm on the Matawin one of the tributaries of the St. Maurice, belonging to Allan Gilmour & Co., of Quebec, about 60 miles from the latter river and 40 north of the St. Lawrence. The sample is what is popularly known as potatoe oats, and is is decidedly the best sample we have seen in Canada. It weighs about fifty pounds to the bushel, it is short, plump, and well colored, and must be exceedingly productive in nutriment. The quantity raised last year was 2500 bushels and 400 bushels of Rye, in addition to potatoes, turnips, hay, &c. Although pretty familiar with the old country farming, we have seldom seen so fine a specimen of oats. The valley of the St. Maurice and its tributaries afford most eligible advantages to the agriculturist.

We learn from Washington March 23, that he Clarendon Dallas treaty, as amended by the Senate, has been amended over again by a Cabinet Council, and will be sent to England by a special agent — Mr. A. H. Evans — by the steamer on Wednesday next. The amendments made by the President and Cabinet will make it more palatable to the English Government, and will probably ensure its confirmation.
