

Come with us: You need a Church Home

Notes.

Convention Offering To-Day.

The Farewell Service for our Missionaries was deeply affecting. We realized as never before that these Missionaries were OUR OWN, and that their work of saving the Teogooks is OUR WORK. Such meetings deepen Missionary zeal.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cook have returned from their wedding trip. They were married Sept. 6, by the Pastor, at the residence of the bride's father, W. H. Knorr, 2 Harris Street. We join in congratulations.

Our Church is rightly called "THE PEOPLE'S CHURCH HOME." It is not a place of amusement where the latest sensations may be found. We do not cater to the crowd to tickle their fancy. But our church is a place where the deepest desires of the human soul may be satisfied, and where the people may worship God intelligently. The services are of such a character as to be interesting to all, rich and poor, great and small, wise and otherwise. The gospel of Jesus Christ is plainly, pointedly and persistently presented as the one great remedy for all the wretchedness of this world, and Jesus Christ as humanity's hope. We welcome everybody. It is not a church for the classes, but the masses. We are one in Christ Jesus. There is plenty of room for as many as will come. The eyes of the people are sore and more turning our way, as we endeavour to provide a genuine church home for the people. If you want to find a place of usefulness, come in heartily amongst us and take hold manfully. You will be welcome. Your soul will be blessed, and sinners will be saved. It must never be forgotten that we get out of a church in proportion to what we put into it. That accounts for the leanness of many church members.

All Seats Free.—Application for sittings should be made to Deacon J. McPherson, Chairman of Pew Committee, who will also provide envelopes. The seats are assigned—not rented. Each pew holder is expected to be a contributor. Notices for "Our Calendar" must be given to the Pastor not later than Thursday evening.

Our Revenue.—This Church is supported by the free will offerings of the people. Every member, young and old, is expected to contribute regularly. If each one gives as "God has prospered," no one will be burdened, and there will be ample means for support of every department. Subscriptions may be made at any time to the Treasurer, Deacon W. T. Harris, and A. E. Soulis, Chairman of the Finance Committee, who will supply envelopes for "CURRENT EXPENSES," "MORTGAGE FUND," and "ORGAN EXPN." "Convention Fund" offering the Second Sunday of each month.

The Pastor will be glad to speak with you at the close of each service. Kindly inform him immediately concerning the sick, strangers, any without regular church home, and where a visit will be helpful. All are urged to use the information cards in pews.
