Scientific and Useful.

PICKLES or vinegar will not keep in a jar that has ever had any kind of grease in it.

PAINT spots may be removed from any kind of clothing by saturating with equal parts of turpentine and spirits of ammonia.

WAFFLES. - One pint of thick sour cream and one quart of thick sour milk, six eggs, the whites and yolks beaten separately, three tablespoonfuls of melted butter, three and a half pints of sifted flour, two teaspoonfuls of soda dissolved in warm water, and some salt. Add the whites of the eggs the last thing before baking.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S Vegetable Compound is a most valuable medicine for ladies of all ages who may be afflicted by any form of disease peculiar to the sex. It is in pills and lozenges in which form they are securely sent through the mails.

Did you ever pour boiling cream, or slightly thickened milk over buckwheat cakes instead of buttering them? They are very good, and are more wholesome than when buttered; and have this additional recommendation; that you can bake enough for breakfast before sitting down to it, and they will keep light and hot if dipped at once into the hot cream, just as toast is.

SOUP. - Do not throw away the bones of turkey or chicken. Crack them and let them boil for two or three hours in a little water, put in also any nice bits of the fowl that are left, particularly the neck, which is never eaten. To this add any soup stock you have, and, with a little barley or sago, you will have a nourishing soup. Season with pepper, salt, and any herbs you choose.

A RICH, dark chestnut brown is the right colour for roasted coffee. The beans should first be looked over and any stones removed, then placed in a dripping-pan in a moderately hot oven, and stirred often. When done the white of an egg may be beaten light, and stirred thoroughly through them, and dried. The coffee will need no other clearing, if a little cold water is added to it before the boiling water.

REMARKABLE RESTORATION. - Mrs. Adelaide O'Brien, of Buffalo, N. Y., was given up to die by her physicians, but cured with Consumption, it proved Liver Complaint, and was cured with Burdock Blood Bitters.

"SALLY LUNN." - Warm one quart of milk with a quarter of a pound of butter and a heaped spoonful of sugar. Beat three eggs and put in with a little salt and flour enough to make it stiffer than pound cake. Beat it well, add a teaspoon of yeast and let it rise. Butter a fluted pan and pour it in. Bake in a quick oven an hour and a half. If you wish tea at six o'clock put it to rise at ten in the morning.

THERE are many perfumes which, when applied to the handkerchief, have a very agreeable odour for a few moments and then die away, leaving only a sickly, disagreeable smell. Not so with Murray & Lanman's Florida Water; the longer it is exposed the more delicate and delightful becomes its rich aroma.

APPLES IN JELLY. - Core and pare thinly twelve small, tart apples, without breaking them apart. Make a syrup of three-quarters of a pound of sugar and five tablespoonfuls of boiling water, and two lemons if small, one if large; cut into very thin slices. Boil the apples and lemon in the syrup until a broom straw will pierce them. Take out carefully into a deep dish. Boil the syrup until it will jelly. Place a slice of lemon on the top of each apple and strain the jelly over them.

TEA BISCUIT. - Boil one quart of milk for two or three minutes; let it cool, then add half a cake of yeast (dissolve the yeast in a little warm water first, and strain it so that the meal will not give a bitter taste to the dough) melt a piece of butter the size of a large walnut; stir this in with flour enough to make a stiff sponge. Let it rise for three hours; then roll and cut out the biscuit make them thinner than for ordinary biscuits; spread them evenly with butter, double together, draw them out to make good shape, let them rise for from fifteen minutes to half an hour, then bake in a quick oven.

A WISE CONCLUSION. - If you have vainly tried many remedies for rheumatism, it will be a wise conclusion to try Hayward's Yellow Oil. It cures all painful diseases when other medicines fail.

Scott's Emulsion of Puro COD LIVER OIL, WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES. Is Most Nutritious and Strengthening. Dr. C. F. Knight, St. Joseph, Mo., says: "I have used Scott's Emulsion for three years, with the greatest satisfaction in all cases, where a nutritious medication is required."
