D'AUBIGNE'S MARTYRS OF THE REFOR-MATION is one of the late issues of the Presbyterian Board of Publication which the Agents of the Board, McGregor & Knight offer to the public. It contains an account of the triumph in death of nearly forty of the Reformation Martyrs both of England and the continent, among them such names as Patrick Hamilton, William Tyndale, George Wishart, and others who came out of great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
It can best be described as a series of WORD PICTURES. The great historian passes before us with that vividness which is his own, those whose blood helped to purchase the religious liberties we now enjoy. One can almost see them and hear them speak. It is a volume of over five hundred pages, the type is large and clear. Children will be fascinated by it, and the old whose eyesight is failing, will with ease and deepest interest peruse its pages. Sold by McGregor & Knight, price $1.75.

THE MISSIONARY PROBLEM, containing a history of Protestant Missions in some of the Principal Fields of Missionary Enterprise, together with a Historical and Statistical Account of the Rise and Progress of Missionary Societies in the latter part of the eighteenth century, by JAMES CROIX, Montreal. This is a neat volume of over 200 pages. The Editor in his preface says that its chapters were prepared for publication in another form and have already had a large circulation, but that the favourable reception with which they have met from the Missionary Press, and the request of many friends that they should be given to the public in a more permanent shape have induced him to re-visit and reprint them. It is divided into eleven chapters, as follows:—

1. The Missionary Problem; 2. Missions in India, 3. Missions in Africa, 4. Madagascar, 5. China and Missions, 6. Christianity in Japan, 7. The Gospel in the South Seas; 8. The Sandwich Islands 9. The Mission Fields of Turkey, 10. Rise and Progress of Foreign Missionary Societies, 11. Ways and Means. It thus surveys the whole field, giving a concise and comprehensive sketch of the rise and progress of Protestant missionary effort throughout the world. McGregor & Knight, Halifax, are agents for the work.
Price one dollar.
