

Poetry.

THE AUTUMNAL GUEST.

The dawn from the forehead of summer
Had dropt, the dim woodlands were bare,
When thro entered our home a strange comer,
Afar from the kingdom of fear,
In the mystical fall of the year.

Has darkened our doors, and the hour,
Once opening like myrtles in bloom,
Were blighted as if they were flowers
That droop in the shade of the tomb—
That wither and die in its gloom.

There came to our cheek a strange pallor,
Our words grow infrequent and low,
But one of our number with valor
Smiled sweet on that terrible foe,
As the rose on the cold falling snow.

My star of the night and the morning,
My joy and my beauty was she,
Then came to my heart a forwarning,
A blast from the winter to be,
The winter that waiteth in me;

And I knew that my kingdom of summer
Must fade, and its crown disappear,
O! pitiless grew that dread comer,
Afar from the kingdom of fear,
In the desolate fall of the year.

Strange that hearts can live on after breaking—
At midnight my darling was dead,
Her bosom had rest from its aching,
Fond bosom her babies that fed—
Pure bosom that pilloved my head.

A grave 'neath the pines for my keeping,
No left me, that sorrowful guest,
A soul that is weary with weeping,
A world that in shadow is drest,
A life that is wild with unrest.

No more, never more to behold her—
I awake by degrees to my loss,
I feel the cold world growing colder:
On borrow's drear ocean I tosse;
I faint 'neath the load of my cross.

Yet high in the infinite summer,
Beyond the pale kingdom of fear,
God's angels have crowned a new comer;
She smiles from her beautiful sphere;
She calls me—the morning is near.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF ASTHMA

OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OF AGE. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Weston (Book Store,) Toronto, dated the 9th October, 1854.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

Sir—Gratitude compels me to make known to you the extraordinary benefit an aged parent has derived from the use of your Pills. My mother was afflicted for upwards of four and twenty years with asthma and spitting of blood, it was quite agony to see her suffer and hear her cough—I have often declared that I would give all I possessed to have cured her, but although I paid a large sum for medicine and advice, it was all to no purpose. About three months ago, I thought perhaps your Pills might benefit her, at all events I resolved to give them a trial, which I did: the result was marvellous: by slow degrees my mother became better, and after persevering with your remedies for nine weeks, she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health, although seventy-five years old.

I remain, Sir, your obliged,

(Signed) THOMAS WESTON

REMARKABLE CURE OF DROPSY

AFTER BEING TAPPED THREE TIMES.

Copy of a Letter from Anthony Smith, Esq., Halifax, Nova Scotia, dated the 25th August, 1854.

To Professor HOLLOWAY

Sir,—I desire to add my testimony to the value of your Pills, in cases of dropsy. For nine months I suffered the greatest torture with this distressing complaint: was tapped three times, and finally given up by the doctors; having become in appearance as a skeleton, and with no more strength in me than a child just born. It was then that I thought of trying your Pills, and immediately sent for a quantity and commenced using them. The result I can scarcely credit even now, although true it is. After using them for four weeks, I felt much better, and by persevering with them, at the expiration of two months, I was completely cured. I have since enjoyed the best of health.

I am, Sir, yours since relieved,

(Signed) ANTHONY SMITH.

ASTONISHING CURE OF GENERAL DEBILITY AND LIVER COMPLAINT

Copy of a Letter from William Reeves, of Charlotte-Town, Prince Edward's Island, dated 17th Nov. 1854.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

Sir,—I am happy to say that your Pills have restored me to health after suffering for nine years from the most intense general debility and languor, my liver and bowels were also much deranged for the whole of that time. I tried many medicines, but they were of no good to me, until I had recourse to your Pills, by taking which, and following the printed directions for seven weeks, I was cured, after every other means failed, to the astonishment of my neighbours, acquaintances, and friends. I shall ever feel grateful to you for this astonishing restoration to health, and will recommend your Pills to all sufferers, feeling it my duty to do so.

I remain, Sir, your humble servant,

(Signed) WILLIAM REEVES.
