EDITOR HOMŒOPATHIC MESSENGER,
97 St. Joseph Street,
Toronto.

PUBLICATION OFFICE:
25 Wellington St. West.

The object of the MESSENGER is to make more generally known the advantages of Grace Hospital, to give from time to time some account of the work of that Institution, together with other items of information of use and interest to every household, and to encourage a wider interest in the Science of Homœopathy.

"It may be truly said that no man does any work perfectly who does not enjoy his work. Joy in one's work is the consummate tool, without which the work may be done indeed, but without its finest perfection."—Phillips Brooks.

A celebrated Frenchman said: "Perfection consists not in doing extraordinary things, but in doing ordinary things with an extraordinary spirit"—Silver Cross.

Fruit dealers are now offering for sale anti-appendicitis grapes. Those who stop to inquire of so singular a name for the grapes find they are seedless.—Portland Oregonian.
