CAPITAL AND LABOUR.

BI OF BRUSK

Capital is simply the savings of previous labour and is useful in sustaining present and future labour.

Capital, therefore, is produced by labour. Labour is simply tollsome work, which is generally performed under the direction of bosses or task-masters, and is rewarded by drafts on the fruits of previous labour or Capital. Labour, therefore, is sustained by Capital. Capital and Labour are inter-dependents

The custodians of Capital may abuse their position and grind the faces of labourers; and, labourers may form trades-unions and organize strikes; but, labour and capital will not quarrel any more than a man will quartel with his meals. Cheapside believes in paying labour handsomely, as no country can be prosperous without well paid labourers.

COYLE VERSUS CHIEF OF POLICE.

Mr. Coyle, who it will be remembered was imprisoned without a warrant by the Chief of Police during the 12th of July troubles, has brought an action against the city, Chief Penton and Sergeant

Richardson for lase imprisonment.

The case came on for hearing on the 1st of February, in the Enquete Court. Mr. Harnett for the defence, Mr. Pagnuelo for the prosecution. Sergeant Richardson deposed that he had been

Sergeant for five years; remembered having arrested Coyle between eleven and twelve p.m; on the 21st July last Sergt. Miller was with me at the time, also four or five policemen; I was not armed. neither ve etle men; Mr. Miller was not, that I know of; made the arrest in Mr. Coyle's house in Parthenais street: went there by order of the Chief of Police; he gave orders to go down to arrest him; he told me to do so between 6 and 7 p.m., or later walted till later, because I heard Coyle was out; had no warrant for his arrest. The Chief gave orders for his arrest upon seeing a letter which I showed him. The letter gave some conversation that Mr. Coyle was heard to use regarding the late T. L. Hackett, who was killed on the 12th July, in a riot; it was a party riot; could not say whether Coyle was accused in the letter of complicity in the murder, but it referred to Coyle's knowing the man who shot Hackett. Miller said that he had been told that Coyle had been seen in the row the time Hackett was killed. Told Coyle when arresting him that it was for taking an active part in the row on Victoria Square. Did not, to my recollection, tell the reporters of this before or after. The arrest took place on Saturday night, and the news of it, I believe, appeared in the papers on the Monday following; could not say who gave the information. There were two men with Coyle when he was arrested, One J J. O'Brien here came forward, and witness thought he was one of the two. Coyle made no resistance; I and Sergt. Miller and one man, if I don't mistake, went in the house; the rest of the men remained in the street; think he asked me if I had a warrant for his arrest; am not in the habit of arresting persons without warrants; I have seen it done before; saw the Government police make an arrest without the warrant. It was in the Elliott case; I took Coyle after his arrest to Gain street Police Station, and afterward brought him down to the Central Station. Could not say whether he was searched or not. Took him in a cab to the Central Station; he was not handcuffed and I was not armed; left him there with the reserve man; Sergeant Lancey was in charge. Let him remain outside the cell till the Sergeant came, when orders were given to lock him up in a cell by himself. Gave no order that no one was to see him. He was in the cells till 9,39 o'cleck Monday merning, when by order of the Chief he was taken over to the Police Court and bailed out; there was no charge against him; he was arrested with the intent of being brought before the Coroner's jury, and was never called. No charge was entered against him in the Police Station. Have had no letter promising indemnity if the arrest was made, and never heard of such a thing.

The following evidence was taken on Monday:-Patrick Kearney, gilder, sworn, deposed that the officers came in, and we were sitting down, except Coyle, who was standing up; they came in and whispered among themselves, when one of them asked O'Brien's name: then Sergeant Miller took a lamp and went into the room where my children were sleeping, and after looking round, he came out again. Then one of them, speaking to plaintiff, said, "Ed. it's you we want." He couldn't have pass ed a firearm under the table to any one. He said, "What's the matter; what's up." Sergeant Richard-son on being asked for his authority, pointed to his badge on his breast, and then Coyle got ready to go. Witness went up to Ald. Gauthier's to try and get bail. They saw Sergt. Miller of Gain street station, and learned there that he was arrested for something connected with the 12th of July troubles, and bail was not allowed. Understood that he was not allowed a clean shirt on Sunday. Saw the account of his arrest in the Witness or Star.

Cross examined-Before the officers came I had come from the barber shop.

Q.-Were there other people at the house that night before you arrived? Objected to by Mr. Pagnuelo.

Q-Were you sitting outside before you went it? | er pot.

Ans—Yes. Q-When you west in the house did you see any revolvers? A. I saw none only the one I had my-Belf, Q-Whatdid you have it for? Objected to by Mr. Pagnuelo.

A. I am accustomed to carry a revolver.

Mr. Harnett in answer to remarks to opposing counsel said he was not such a coward as to carry

I could not swear that Sergeant Miller went into the bedroom. Sergeant Richardson did not act roughly with Coyle, as he offered no resistance. We were all sitting up at the time, and I will swear that McEvenue was not in the house.

John J. O'Brien examined by Mr. Pagnuelo:-I am brother-in-law to Mr. Coyle, who is a rope-maker. I was present when he was arrested. There were in the room at the time, my sister, Mr. Coyle and his wife and myself about the table reading and talking, when a rap at the door occurred. I saw no fire arm with Coyle. He asked Sergt. Richardson what he was arresting him for, and if he had a warrant. He answered" No." I saw Sergt. Miller passing toward the bedroom, where he had no business. I could not say whether there were lights in the room or not. Coyle made no resistance. I have been out of employment for about two months. I was last in Mr. Coyle's employ. Mr. Coyle had property enough to live without any business. The bedroom was the only room Sergeant Miller went into. I had no firearms. I saw no firearms in any person's hands as the police entered. I was sitting outside the door for about fifteen or twenty minutes before I went into the house.

IT IS A REMARKABLE coincidence that the decades of 1798, I808, 1818, 1828, 1838, 1848, 1858, 1868, and 1878, should be productive of mild winters, which fact renders it possible that some sysers, which fact renders it possible that some system exists which attronomers have not studied up RICHENDED, QUEBEC.—At a recent monthly meeting Butter, large rolls, 0.14 to 0.15 tem exists which astronomers have not studied up of the St. Patrick's Society of Richmond, the followng motion was unanimously passed :- Moved by Jas. Murphy, Esq., seconded by D. M. Dillon Esq., that the thanks of this Society be tendered Dr. Graham for his many acts of kindness and courtesy towards this Society, since its organization.

I.C.B U .- A branch of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union was organized in Belleville on Tuesday week by Mr. W. J. Garrigan, President of the Kingston Branch and Vice-President of the I.C.B.U. of Canada. The meeting was large and enthusiastic. After Mr. Garrigan had explained the objects of the Union the officers were elected, Mr. E. Mc-Mahon being chosen as President. At the close of the proceedings a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Garrigan, who delivered a suitable address.

THE WELLAND Tribune says :- We have this week to record the death of Mr. Joseph Marshall, of this town, at the very extraordinary age of 105 years. The deceased was born in the County of Armagh. Ireland, on the 8th of June, 1773, and came to Canada 50 years ago. Since hie immigration to this country he was a resident; of the township of Willoughby until a few years ago, when he came to live with his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Lee, of this place, where his demise occurred. A few days before his death he was smart and intelligent.

THE ACTION of Rev. Father Gillaume, Parish Priest, of the County of Bussell : Mr. Helmer, Reeve and M. Lalonde, Deputy Reeve, in procuring such a magnificent donation of wood as that brought into the city yesterday for the benefit of the poor, cannot but commend itself to every resident of the capital. It is certainly to be hoped that some practical recognition will be made by our citizens at an early day to the Rev. Father and his cc-workers, and the farmers who have so pobly responded to their call .- Ottowa Citizen.

FAILURES IN CANADA IN 1877 .- During the year 1877 there were in the Dominion 1,890 failures, over one-half of which were in the province of Ontario. The liabililies amounted to $25,510,147. The number of failures is increased 162 over the previous year, but the liabilities show a light decrease. There are about 56,000 traders in the Dominion, and the result above quoted would show that there was one failure in every 29 persons doing business. The proportion of failures in the United States is one to every 69 traders; consequently, the showing of the Dominion is decidedly bad.

RELICS IN THE SEMINARY CHAPEL, QUEBEC .- Large numbers of people visited the pretty chapel of the Seminary on Thursday to view a number of relica therein exposed to view. One of these is a small, oblong, iron link, and is a piece of the chain with which St. Paul the Apostle was bound in prison. The second is a fragment of bone, a portion of the remains of St. Francois de Sales. The remaining relic is a figure placed in a recumbent position upon a small couch, and is the body of St. Laurent, one of the companions of St. Zenon. We are informed that the relics will remain on view to-day and to-morrow, which is the fete of St. Francois de Sales, will be placed under the altar of St. Charles Borromee.

THE SMITH'S FALLS News says :- It is the prevailing opinion that owing to the wet fall and bare frost grasshopers will not be so plenty next season. This may be, but what of the eggs now in the ground ready for incubation as soon as the warm weather sets in? Of the manner in which they are hatched out we have a striking illustration. Mr. Alex. McGillivray has brought us a bottle containing some fifty or sixty young hoppers, smaller than horse fites, and gives their history as follows:—A flower pot which was outside during the fall was brought in on the approach of cold weather. One day lately he noticed a small army of the hoppers emerging from the pot the warm temperature of the house having had the same effect as the genial sunships of the summer months. Those brought to us where his captives as they escaped from the flow-

LECTUTE IN MUSIC HALL QUEBEC. ment that Rev. Father Honning, CSS. R., was to deliver a lecture in the Music Hall, on Thursday evening, on the subject of "The Persecution of the Church," was sufficient to fill the hall to its utmost capacity. The lecture was given under the auspices of the St. Patrick's Catholic and Literary Institute, and from his well-known ability, the audience were certain that the subject would be treated in a masterly manner. Nor were they in any manner disappointed. From the opening to the closing sentence, the lecturer succeeded in holding the absorbed attention of all present, and the deepest interest was manifested throughout the entire lecture. It is seldom that a lecture in this city has proved a greater success than the one delivered last night. and in the opinions of the audience it was but too soon brough to a close We regret that the pressure upon our columns in this issue, occasioned by the delivery of the Budget speech in the Legislature last night, prevents us from giving a synopsis of the lecture, as it was a mostable effort, and would be read by our readers with pleasure .- Exchange.

EPPS'S COCOA .- GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING .- " By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected cocos, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourishedframe."-Civil Service Gazette.
