Land League. "Since the adoption of the Dublin platform

by the Parliamentary leaders of the Itlsh sion," said President Michael B. Holmes to a reporter in explaining the object of the meeting. "Its relinquishment as an ineffective means created much opposition against the leaders of our race among people not of our nationality, but who, although they sympathized with us, entertained extreme and socialistic views on the subject of Ireland. These people meant well, doubtless, but they did us more harm than good by iomenting dissen.

sions in our ranks. Now we intend to inau-

as the Irish National League, which will supersede and absorb, if possible, the old Land

ELECTRICITY IS NOW RECOGNIZED, 28 a re-medial agent of prime importance, and medi-cinal articles in which this principle is develop-ed by contact, are among those most highly esteemed. Physicians and others who have observed or experienced the action of Dr. Thomas' Eclecitic Oll, testify to the thorough-ness and promptitude with which it effects ouralive results. Losing no strength by evapora-tion, like other olls, pure in its constituents and efficacious inwardly and outwardly, this supreme remedy is, moreover, sold at a price which enables all to avail themselves of it. It is a 'rime remedy for affections of the throat, cheet and lungs; conquers rheumatism and neuralizis; subdues inflammation, eradicates piles and remedies all manner of outward hurts. Collo, sweeney, garget, harness aud collar galls, and other maladies and injuries of the brule creation, are completely cored by it. Sold by all medicine dealers. WEEKLY SEVIEW ... WHOLESALE MARKEIS.

With very few exceptions the wholesale city trade has been unusually dull during the week just ended. The holidays are held to be responsible for this, and they will continue to be blamed until the second week in the New Year. Merchants are mostly engaged stock taking and balancing accounts, earnestly endeavoring to find out, correctly, how they fared PE to business and profits in the year now so rapidly drawing No. 1 and 15c for No. 2. SCOTCH NEWS.

SCOTCH NEWS. At the Greenock Police Court on Tuesday-before Baille Smith-John Jamieson, contrac-tor, and John McPherson, laborer, were charged with having, on 3rd inst, at the formation of Dempster street, while blasting rocks, failed to have the blasts properly cover.d, whereby pieces of rock were thrown to a considerable distance, damaging property and frightening the lieges. Mr. George McDonald appeared for the deferce. After evidence, McPherson was fined £2 or ten days in pri-on, while the charge against Jamieson was found not proven. At the thirty-first annu il meeting of the Scot-tish Cosat Mission, held on Monday in the Royal Hotel, Edinburgh, it was reported that the in-come for the past year had amounted to £1,300 while the expensive had been £1,500. The four-teen missionaries who usually labored in con-nection with the society had disseminated about 100,000 Christian publications in 12 different jan-guages, while during the year 1,500 copies of the Scriptores had been disposed of, chiefly to sea-men. The report was adopted, and the directors and office bearers reappointed. The ambulance carriage which has teen pur-

The ambulance carriage which has been pur-chased by money got up by subscription arrived at Greenosk from London on Monday, and was accomodated in the fire brigade premises. The total cost of the carriage (Dr. Howard's inven-tion) is about \pounds^{100} . It is so arranged that it can be drawn by one or two horses, but it is so light that one man can draw it. It has been fitted up with all the necessary fittings that may be required for the ease and comfort of in-jured persons in course of removal from the scene of accident to the infirmary. An explosion of supnowder occurred on Mon-scene of accident to the infirmary. An explosion of gunpowder occurred on Mon-day morning in Lindsay's Land. Cambusnethan in a grocer's shop occupied by Margaret Wilson or Russer, who resides in the one end of the property. It appears that the servant went to the back shop for some articles. On going in she round the candle standing on a box. She lit it, and threw the burning paper into an open canister contaiving a package of gunpowder. While the paper was burning the girl escaped, but the force of the explosion blew a hole in the roof and did some other damage. No one was injured.

Injured. The Counters of Dalkeith was on Saturday afternoon presented with a portrait in oil of her husband, subscribbed jor by the Conserva-tives of Mid-Lothian. Lady balkeith, in a few well chosen words, expressed her pleasure at receiving this token of the friendly relations existing between her family and the Conserva-tives of the county. The Marquis of Salisbury was present at the ceremony, and in support-ing a resolution congratulating the Duke of Buccleuch on the attainment of his 76th birth-day said that the political career of his Grace had been a remarkable and distinguished one, being characterized throughout by judgement and moderation and mar-sightedness.

A GANG OF THIEVES. NEW YORK, Dec. 19.-Wm. Sulphen, a lawyer in the course of his business some months ago, executed condition deeds transferring to his clerk. Waiter Shibley, claiming to be unmar-ried, $140,000 worth of real estate. The deeds were not recorded, it being meant to convey the property temporarily to Shibley, and that the latter should reconvey it or the deeds be de-stroyed when certain business was completed. The deeds were kept in the sale. On the 16th of November, Brown & Wescoit save Shibley a cheque for $16,020 for money due to Sutphen. Shibley had the cheque certified, and unsuc-cessfully tried to buy Government bonds with it or get money on if. He then disappeared, taking the deeds for the property conveyed to him by Sutphen. The following day, Henry Kipling, a lawyer, called on Sutphen, and offer-ed to procure the deeds for a consideration. An attractive young woman, who had often visited Shibley as the law office under the name of Miss Jennie Brooks, also called, and introduced harself as the wife of the fugitive, and entitled to dower right in the property. She refused to sign a release, and sald her husband would not give up the papers unless he received the money. Sutphen refused to pay, and invoked the aid of the police. Shibley and Kipling were arrested. Ball was fixed at $10,000, and both were sent to the Tombs. A GANG OF THIEVES.

Just before adjournment, Michael J. Mc-Mahon read a series of resolutions passed by Branch 2 of St, Patrick's Alliance. These resolutions disapproved of all temporising, and asserted that more could be done for Ireland by 20,000 men armed with Westchester rifles than by eloquenco and moral sussion. They denounced Gladstone as a tyrant, his supporters as a staff of vandals and degenerated Neros, and concluded by providing for the organization of the Irishmen in a military confederation.

At the suggestion of President Holmes, the resolutions were withdrawn. A member of the Executive Committee was appointed from each delegation .- N. Y. Sun.

MB. BIGGAR'S BABY. One of the penalties which notoriety entails conduct, both public and private, always closely watched, and untairly criticised. If he have the misfortune to become the hero of an annusing episode, the fact is cortain to find its way into the newspapers, almost invariably garnished with highly-colored details drawn from the imagination of the writer; while many an anec-dote is published which never had the slightest foundation in fact. In relating the follow-ing incident, however, of which no less a personage than Mr. Biggar, M. P., is the hero, I shall simply repeat the story as it was told to me a few nights ago. It appears that when the hon, member for Cavan was crossing the Channel to England during the brief but doubless Elysian period when he was treading the primrose path out of which he earried about on deck. The weather grew bolsterous, and the steamer, of course, began to pitch. The spray of a wavecrest having been dashed over the hon, nember's genial face, he started suddenly and accidentally dropped in basket. To the astonishment of a benevolen doxing old gen-tieman who stood close by, a sories of those low but ear-plercing crise which are not unfamiliar to the young pater (amilias proceeded from the interior of the basket, and only cassed on the hon, member addressing to the mysterious oc-cupant some soothing haraague which sounded very ilke an oid I rish luilaby. The old genti-man noted the circumstance, and shrewdiy held his peace; but he continued to sorutinise Mr. Bigar's every movement during the re-mainder of the voyage. As foon as the steamer roached Dover, the old gentieman nurried efficient agares in the suparentity unwarranted efficient agares having the policeman on duty, made a communication to him which induced him to isy hands on Mr. Biggar the moment he inder of the protest, to the inspection. In ruling upon the respective liability of land-lord and tenant for the negligent construction or bad condition of a building. Chief Justice Brigham of Eoston says that the landlord alone is responsible for the bad construction. but the tenant may be made to pay any damages caused by the negligent use of it. For instance the landlord is liable for injuries caused by a defective trap door, but the tenant is liable for injuries caused by a trap door left open.

injuries caused by a trap door left open. Years ago an old gentleman, walking on the pier at Dover, England, dropped his gold-head-ed cane through one of the holes locally known as tree nall holes, in the plank. Indignant and disgusted at his loss, he bequeathed a sum of money to pay for annually stopping these holes, the overplus to be laid out in a dinner to the Corporation. An annual dinner consequently takes place, and before the party break up they cortify that the holes have been doly attended to. $1 07; peas, 89c to 90c; oats, 34c to 35c;
