MAN. AND N. W. T.

DERRY

The way that Derry was carried against Justin McCarthy is shown by the following incidents. A man named O'Brien, at Lewisits, was charged by the Nationalists with personating his father, who is dead. He was arrested and brought up for investigation. Three of Mr. Lewis polling agents and his published election agent sat on the Bench: and refused to give a remand, although that six witnesses would be produced to prove the charge. Mr. O'Doherty pro-tested against the dicision. Subsequen-tly a Nationalist was brought up before the same Bench for personating his father. The agent of Mr. Lewis withdrew the charge, and thereupon Mr. O'Doherty applied for the penalty of 10 pound recoverable in case of the failure of the prosecution, and again, by the some majority, the Bench refused.

DONEGAL

In reality a destitution in Gweedore is amply demonstrated by the large number os families seeking admission into the workhouse. The people held out as long as possible, in hopes that outdoor reliet would reach them through outdoor relief would reach them through some influence, but the guardians have determinedly set their faces at anything of the kind, and the ratepayers insist that all the members of the family, including the head, must enter. This nec essities complete abandonment of the homestead, and means certain ruin to the families in question. On July. 7 a poor family who had applied for relief, three weeks before, were oblidged to un dertake the journey on foot, worn, hun gry, and sickly, because no efforts can move the relieving officer to give orders and supply transports as the requirements demand. Over 300 hundred families have made application for relief so far back as three weeks, and all that has been done was to admit thirty six per. sons into the workhouse on June the 30 and expel them because the whole fam. ilies had not entered. An eyewitness describes the passing of these creatures through Falcarragh as follows'—'It was a mournful sight to witness the processee peasants passing through here, under a drenching shower, on their way home from Dunfanaghy workhouse. Recent ly the releiving officer sent orders of ad mission for 22 families to the parish priest, and on July 1, as early as deem to that eminent Patriot to show how he is suffering from the general wickedness of the times. The Land commissions has been looking after his concerns down in the West. Decisions were giv. these poor people were off on their dis-heartening journey. Several other fam, ilies crowded around the priests resid ence on the previous evening to learn if tickets arrived for them. They complain crean (whose remarks were tacitly ass. ed bitterly that they had been applying to the officer every week for three are very large but not larger than the weeks; and that some of them travelled to his residence; eight miles off, and that they were now starving, and that they were now starving, and that the neighbors were wearied of supplying them with meal since they had eaten the last relief in meal given by Father

THE GOLDEN BOSE

The Golden Rose, now generally presented by the Popes to empresses and queen's who by their good works or by the protection accorded by them to holy things have rendered themselves well deserving of the Church, and of the sovereign Pontiff, was in ancient times given by the Popes to the Prefects of Rome saving in cases where the Emperor came to Rome to be crowned, when he was the recipent of the Rose, as Frederick III., in 1451, upon whom it was the on the adjoining mountains.
