

Most of you wearing corrective lenses have regular eye examinations but tell your eye doctor about your VDT use and the viewing distances. Viewing distances and angles may have an influence on what your doctor recommends.