ARTICLE 7

Functions |

The Inter-American Radio Office shall be charged with: The Inter-American Radio Office States and the work resulting from their (a) the preparatory work of conferences and the work resulting from their decisions;

(b) providing in accord with the organizing government concerned, the

Secretariat of the conferences;

Secretariat of the conference,

(c) the issuance of such publications as may be established by conference.

ences;
(d) the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication and circulation of technical information other than the publication of the the publication and circulation of the exchange of data relating that resulting from conferences, including the exchange of data relating that resulting are and stability of frequencies, to interference or catherence or cather that resulting from conterences, introduction to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies, to interference or other to the accuracy and stability of frequencies of the contracting course. to the accuracy and stability of the contracting of other disturbances observed in the territories of the contracting countries disturbances observed in the territories of the contracting countries. disturbances observed in the territorial on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on, such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on the such as the propagation and such other studies as may be carried on the such as the propagation and such other studies as the propagation and such other studies as the propagation and such other studies as the propagation and such as the propagation and the propag and such other studies as may be carried and such as a logal nature, treaties and general information desired and such other studies as may be carried and such other studies as may be carried as a such other studies as may be carried as a such other studies as may be carried as a such other studies as may be carried as a such of the such other studies as a such other studies as a such other studies as may be carried as a such other studies as a such other studie of waves, the general characteristics and general information designed of documents of a legal nature, treaties and general information designed of documents of alegal nature, and raising of the standards of radional and raising of the standa of documents of a legal nature, treating of the standards of radiocomers and the standards and the standards are standards and the standards and the standards are standards are standards and the standards are standard munications in the American continent;

munications in the American (e) the submission of an annual report of its work, which shall be communicated to all contracting governments;

municated to all contracting of municated to all contracting of such other duties as may pertain to it or be (f) the performance the conferences.

assigned to it by the conferences.

ARTICLE 8

Maintenance of the Office

(a) The general expenses of the Inter-American Radio Office shall not Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) currency of (a) The general expenses of the the sum of Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) currency of the exceed the sum of Twenty-five annum.

United States of America, per annum.

ed States of America, per annull.

(b) In order to defray these expenses each of the American governments

(b) In order to in proportion to a certain number of units corresponding (b) In order to defray these expenses a certain number of units corresponding agrees to contribute in proportion to a certain number of units corresponding agrees to contribute it belongs, as provided in the Internal Regulation agrees to contribute in proportion to a provided in the Internal Regulations of to the category to which it belongs, as provided in the Internal Regulations of to the category to which it belongs, as properties are established with the units assigned to each as shown below:—

Categories..... I II III IV V VI

(c) The general expenses will not include the expenses incidental to the work of conferences, which shall be borne by the organizing government.

of conferences, which shall be Office shall be payable half yearly in (d) The funds required for the Office shall be payable half yearly in (d). The funds required for the Inter-American Radio On in (d) The funds required for the Inter-American Radio Office advance by the governments forming part of the Inter-American Radio Office. advance by the governments forming path advance of the country in which any country is in arrears of payment the government of the country in which any country is a shall advance amounts as required. The sums which If any country is in arrears of payment the arrequired. The sums the Office is located shall advance amounts as required. The sums thus the Office is located shall advanced by the debtor governments as soon as possible advanced must be reimbursed by the debtor governments as soon as possible and advanced must be reimbursed by the date on which at the latest at the expiration of the fourth month following the date on which payments are due. connicate de Télé-communications ARTICLE 9

Seat and Supervision of the Office

(a) The seat of the Inter-American Radio Office and appointment of the Agenda for each conference. Director will form a subject of the Agenda for each conference.

ector will form a subject of the right where the Office has its seat shall (b) The Government of the country where the Office has its seat shall (b) The Government of the country (b) The Government of the country (c) Th the necessary advances of funds.