

rotation point The location within a graphic object around which the object rotates.

Scrapbook A collection of clipart images that are organized by category.

slide layer The slide layer is where you create your slide show by adding information and objects.

slide show A full-screen electronic display of a presentation.

text box A text area that you use to enter two or more lines of text. When you type in a text box, the text automatically wraps to the next line and the size of the text area adjusts to accommodate the amount of text.

text line A text area that you use to enter a single line of text.

transition The manner in which one slide is cleared from the screen and the next slide is introduced.

zoom To enlarge or reduce an area on a slide.