

Business of the House

DEPARTMENT OF FORESTRY

152. Departmental administration, $1,090,452.

DEPARTMENT OF MINES AND TECHNICAL SURVEYS

Departmental administration—

202. Administration, operation and maintenance, $1,087,947.

DEPARTMENT OF SECRETARY OF STATE

387. Departmental administration, $332,439.

Proceedings reported.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Kucherepa: Mr. Speaker, will the acting house leader indicate the order of business for tomorrow?

Mr. Nowlan: Mr. Speaker, in view of what has taken place during the past 15 minutes I do not think there is any point in indicating the business for tomorrow because it will undoubtedly be disrupted.

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh.

Mr. Speaker: Order.

Mr. Martin (Essex East): That is a shameful statement. The minister is replying to one of his own party members.

Mr. Speaker: Order.

At ten o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.