Mr. Goodale: I ask, Mr. Speaker, that the remaining questions be allowed to stand.

Mr. Brisco: Mr. Speaker, if there were some difficulty with question No. 506 which was placed on the order paper on October 14 last, I would understand the problem the government might have in responding to my question. However, in view of the fact that it is a straightforward and simple question I would think someone within the Post Office Department should be able to answer it, and I would like to register my concern.

Mr. Speaker: Before proceeding with orders of the day, may I say that hon. members are aware that yesterday a very important point of order was raised concerning the use of items in the estimates, particularly the supplementary estimates and particularly $1 items in supplementary estimates to achieve legislative purposes. I had hoped I would be in a position to make that ruling at three o'clock this afternoon, and I almost made it. I have some finishing touches to put on
