

17th January,
1930.

Professor Carleton Stanley,
Department of Classics,
Faculty of Arts.

Dear Professor Stanley,

The Principal asks me to send you the enclosed Programme in connection with the inauguration ceremony on the 30th and 31st of January at Victoria University, Toronto.

This is just for your information in the meantime. We have sent your name to the Registrar at Victoria and he will send you invitations to the various functions and all necessary information.

Yours very truly,

Secretary to the Principal.
