

office next door to where he had his office and used a fictitious name. He then returned to Montreal but instructed Gariepy to remain in Toronto, and if possible get two other books which he required to carry out his scheme. This Gariepy did and on the next day he stole the other two books. He then returned to Montreal. On the last day he was here he received a letter from Baugh, evidently written on the train, warning him to be careful and not to trust Pett, as he might post Stimson.

After he arrived in Montreal he and Baugh went over the books and in the place where the letters were, which Stimson had written to him, showing the sale of these stocks, he and Gariepy planned to put other ones showing that it was an option. In order that they might have sheets with the page numbers on, the same as the ones in the book, it was necessary to buy a new book. They then found that they could not purchase such a one in Montreal and it was necessary for Baugh to come to Toronto, which he did. He finally located a place on Adelaide Street where this style of book was sold and he purchased one. Again he returned to Montreal. Gariepy claims that it was about this time that he really became aware of what Baugh was planning to do, but he made up his mind he would go through with it. When they came to make copies of letters similar to the ones in the
