

Chord

Price Fine

Special, Tues

in the Furn

ite stripe cambr

Sizes 12 1/2 to 14

ish made; sizes 32

Drawers, Tuesday

Special, 75c

sizes 14 1/2 to 17

irts and drawers, in

ent, 19c

ine Day in

partment

DAY, $1.99

LY, in Blucher style;

dp and genuine don-

on good, easy-fitting

$2.50 to $2.75. Tues-

SDAY, $1.99

made of fine kid, with flexible McKay soles;

laces; sizes 2 1/2 to 9

8, TUESDAY, $1.99

ie Slippers, with five

soles; Cuban heels;

afternoon slipper; all

Tuesday, $1.99

TUESDAY, $1.99

quality Blucher Box

reinforced soles, solid styles; will take a size 1 to 5. Regu-

Monday, $1.49

er style, in fine box

of "Clad" brand soles;

h, serviceable boots;

regularly $2.00. Tuesday, $1.49

all Orders.

Hosiery

weave, lisle top, new

On sale Tuesday, 99c

here Hose, sizes 1 to mere Socks, "Llama"

size 56c; pair, 10c

Socks, manufacturer's

FOR RENT—STORE
4 YONGE STREET
Solely occupied by Dominion Express Property. For full particulars apply to H. E. WILLIAMS & CO.
28 King St. E.

PROB—S. W. to N. W. and N. W. winds; party fair, some showers and cooler.

RUSSIAN RETAINS
ADVANTAGE FOR
NEW OFFENSIVE

Occupation of Carpathians
Enables Her to Strike East
or West.

BATTALION CAPTURED
Austrian Unit Surrounded at Telepotch and Forced to Surrender.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

PETROGRAD, April 19.—An Austrian battalion was captured by the Russian troops holding the heights of Telepotch, in the Carpathians, after the Russians had defeated the enemy in another attack to dislodge the Muscovite troops from these eminences.
The assailants were triumphantly captured and the Russians immediately delivered a counter-attack which captured the approaches to the cliffs and surrounded the battalion,
which surrendered en bloc. The Petrograd War Office announced tonight
that the previous report that 1155 men and 20 officers of the Austrian army were captured when the Russians
stormed the height southwest of Polen Village, has been confirmed. Six machine guns were also captured.
Two fresh attacks in the direction of Tury were repulsed.

Russians Taking Rest.
The Russians, having advanced to the line of the Carpathians which they set out to occupy, are resting till reinforcements and fresh supplies are brought up, and in the meantime
they are cutting off isolated Austrian and German positions. The enemy still hold Lisak Pass, the Russians can dislodge them by an advance over the mountains and threatening their rear. This manoeuvre, if carried out in force, would compel the invaders to evacuate the pass. This would be a valuable strategic move
as an invader on account of his controlling an important railway which could serve as one of the lines of communication. It is the highest pass in the Carpathians, and to carry it by a frontal attack would involve an unnecessary loss of life. In such a case
a flank attack is deemed more effectious than a frontal one.

Have Advantageous Position.
Holding the principal chain of the Carpathians for a distance of 78 miles, the Russians are in a position to launch their troops westward from mountains to Caracow, or down the Carpathians, as they see fit. They will probably move towards the actual objectives in order to keep the German general staff at sea as to their actual intentions. It is the Russians who gained the initiative since the fall of Persnyal and in strategic parlance they are now in a position to force the enemy to conform to their manoeuvres.

South of the Carpathians, before they come to the agricultural belt of Hungary, is a wooded section. Going westward, it is necessary to pass a forest does not necessarily prove an army of invaders the obstacles it used to present. If the Austrians attempt to defend its approaches and demolish the foothills of the Carpathians they put themselves in grave danger of defeat. The seizure of one or two of their lines of retreat would be fatal to their whole army. Hence some military critics believe that they will fall back before Budapest.

(Continued on Page 2, Column 2.)

BRITISH Have Captured
Position North of Ypres

RUSSIAN RETAINS
ADVANTAGE FOR
NEW OFFENSIVE

Occupation of Carpathians
Enables Her to Strike East
or West.

BATTALION CAPTURED
Austrian Unit Surrounded at Telepotch and Forced to Surrender.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

PETROGRAD, April 19.—An Austrian battalion was captured by the Russian troops holding the heights of Telepotch, in the Carpathians, after
the Russians had defeated the enemy
in another attack to dislodge the Mus-
covite troops from these eminences.
The assailants were triumphantly captured and the Russians immediately
delivered a counter-attack which
captured the approaches to the
cliffs and surrounded the battalion,
which surrendered en bloc. The Petro-
grad War Office announced tonight
that the previous report that 1155 men
and 20 officers of the Austrian army
were captured when the Russians
stormed the height southwest of Polen
Village, has been confirmed. Six machine guns were also captured.
Two fresh attacks in the direction
of Tury were repulsed.

Russians Taking Rest.
The Russians, having advanced to
the line of the Carpathians which they
set out to occupy, are resting till reinforcements and fresh supplies are
brought up, and in the meantime
they are cutting off isolated Austrian and German positions. The
enemy still hold Lisak Pass, the Russians can dislodge them by an advance over the mountains and threatening their rear. This manoeuvre, if
carried out in force, would compel
the invaders to evacuate the pass. This
would be a valuable strategic move
as an invader on account of his con-
trolling an important railway which
could serve as one of the lines of communication. It is the highest pass in
the Carpathians, and to carry it by a
frontal attack would involve an un-
necessary loss of life. In such a case
a flank attack is deemed more effec-
tious than a frontal one.

Have Advantageous Position.
Holding the principal chain of the Carpathians for a distance of 78 miles,
the Russians are in a position to
launch their troops westward from
mountains to Caracow, or down the Carpathians, as they see fit. They
will probably move towards the
actual objectives in order to keep the German general staff at sea as to their
actual intentions. It is the Russians
who gained the initiative since the fall
of Persnyal and in strategic parlance
they are now in a position to force the
enemy to conform to their manoeuvres.

South of the Carpathians, before
they come to the agricultural belt of Hungary, is a wooded section. Going
westward, it is necessary to pass a
forest does not necessarily prove an
army of invaders the obstacles it
used to present. If the Austrians attempt to defend its approaches and
demolish the foothills of the Carpathians
they put themselves in grave danger
of defeat. The seizure of one or two of their lines of retreat would be
fatal to their whole army. Hence some
military critics believe that they will
fall back before Budapest.

(Continued on Page 2, Column 2.)

BRITISH Have Captured
Position North of Ypres

RUSSIAN RETAINS
ADVANTAGE FOR
NEW OFFENSIVE

Occupation of Carpathians
Enables Her to Strike East
or West.

BATTALION CAPTURED
Austrian Unit Surrounded at Telepotch and Forced to Surrender.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

PETROGRAD, April 19.—An Austrian battalion was captured by the Russian troops holding the heights of Telepotch, in the Carpathians, after
the Russians had defeated the enemy
in another attack to dislodge the Mus-
covite troops from these eminences.
The assailants were triumphantly captured and the Russians immediately
delivered a counter-attack which
captured the approaches to the
cliffs and surrounded the battalion,
which surrendered en bloc. The Petro-
grad War Office announced tonight
that the previous report that 1155 men
and 20 officers of the Austrian army
were captured when the Russians
stormed the height southwest of Polen
Village, has been confirmed. Six machine guns were also captured.
Two fresh attacks in the direction
of Tury were repulsed.

Russians Taking Rest.
The Russians, having advanced to
the line of the Carpathians which they
set out to occupy, are resting till reinforcements and fresh supplies are
brought up, and in the meantime
they are cutting off isolated Austrian and German positions. The
enemy still hold Lisak Pass, the Russians can dislodge them by an advance over the mountains and threatening their rear. This manoeuvre, if
carried out in force, would compel
the invaders to evacuate the pass. This
would be a valuable strategic move
as an invader on account of his con-
trolling an important railway which
could serve as one of the lines of communication. It is the highest pass in
the Carpathians, and to carry it by a
frontal attack would involve an un-
necessary loss of life. In such a case
a flank attack is deemed more effec-
tious than a frontal one.

Have Advantageous Position.
Holding the principal chain of the Carpathians for a distance of 78 miles,
the Russians are in a position to
launch their troops westward from
mountains to Caracow, or down the Carpathians, as they see fit. They
will probably move towards the
actual objectives in order to keep the German general staff at sea as to their
actual intentions. It is the Russians
who gained the initiative since the fall
of Persnyal and in strategic parlance
they are now in a position to force the
enemy to conform to their manoeuvres.

South of the Carpathians, before
they come to the agricultural belt of Hungary, is a wooded section. Going
westward, it is necessary to pass a
forest does not necessarily prove an
army of invaders the obstacles it
used to present. If the Austrians attempt to defend its approaches and
demolish the foothills of the Carpathians
they put themselves in grave danger
of defeat. The seizure of one or two of their lines of retreat would be
fatal to their whole army. Hence some
military critics believe that they will
fall back before Budapest.

The Toronto World

TWELVE PAGES—TUESDAY MORNING APRIL 20 1915—TWELVE PAGES

WILL EXCHANGE
SOUTH ROSEDALE
Four-family House for Central Business Property. Apply
H. E. WILLIAMS & CO.
28 King St. E.

VOL. XXXV.—No. 12,578

BRITISH Have Captured
Position North of Ypres

FRENCH Have Taken Eselbruck in Alsace From Enemy

RUSSIAN RETAINS
ADVANTAGE FOR
NEW OFFENSIVE

Occupation of Carpathians
Enables Her to Strike East
or West.

BATTALION CAPTURED
Austrian Unit Surrounded at Telepotch and Forced to Surrender.

Best Surgeons
Fail to Save
Capt. Darling

British Capture Hill 60
Success is Notable One

Column Moves
to Invasion of North Hungary

FRENCH OCCUPY
ANOTHER TOWN
ON FECHT RIVER

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

PETROGRAD, April 19.—An Austrian battalion was captured by the Russian troops holding the heights of Telepotch, in the Carpathians, after
the Russians had defeated the enemy
in another attack to dislodge the Mus-
covite troops from these eminences.
The assailants were triumphantly captured and the Russians immediately
delivered a counter-attack which
captured the approaches to the
cliffs and surrounded the battalion,
which surrendered en bloc. The Petro-
grad War Office announced tonight
that the previous report that 1155 men
and 20 officers of the Austrian army
were captured when the Russians
stormed the height southwest of Polen
Village, has been confirmed. Six machine guns were also captured.
Two fresh attacks in the direction
of Tury were repulsed.

Russians Taking Rest.
The Russians, having advanced to
the line of the Carpathians which they
set out to occupy, are resting till reinforcements and fresh supplies are
brought up, and in the meantime
they are cutting off isolated Austrian and German positions. The
enemy still hold Lisak Pass, the Russians can dislodge them by an advance over the mountains and threatening their rear. This manoeuvre, if
carried out in force, would compel
the invaders to evacuate the pass. This
would be a valuable strategic move
as an invader on account of his con-
trolling an important railway which
could serve as one of the lines of communication. It is the highest pass in
the Carpathians, and to carry it by a
frontal attack would involve an un-
necessary loss of life. In such a case
a flank attack is deemed more effec-
tious than a frontal one.

Have Advantageous Position.
Holding the principal chain of the Carpathians for a distance of 78 miles,
the Russians are in a position to
launch their troops westward from
mountains to Caracow, or down the Carpathians, as they see fit. They
will probably move towards the
actual objectives in order to keep the German general staff at sea as to their
actual intentions. It is the Russians
who gained the initiative since the fall
of Persnyal and in strategic parlance
they are now in a position to force the
enemy to conform to their manoeuvres.

South of the Carpathians, before
they come to the agricultural belt of Hungary, is a wooded section. Going
westward, it is necessary to pass a
forest does not necessarily prove an
army of invaders the obstacles it
used to present. If the Austrians attempt to defend its approaches and
demolish the foothills of the Carpathians
they put themselves in grave danger
of defeat. The seizure of one or two of their lines of retreat would be
fatal to their whole army. Hence some
military critics believe that they will
fall back before Budapest.

(Continued on Page 2, Column 2.)

BRITISH Have Captured
Position North of Ypres

ELECTION JUNE 28?

Monday, June 28, has been tentatively set as the date for the federal election according to a persistent report around the city yesterday.
A prominent local Conservative is given as the authority for the statement.

TURKISH NATION
UNITED FOR WAR
NOBODY AFRAID

Country Washed All Sins Away, is Incredible Assertion.

PEOPLE PROSPEROUS
Russia and Britain Forced Hostilities, Declares Man Who Began Fighting.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 18.—
"This is not a war of the Turkish people," said Enver Pasha, at the age of 23 war minister and generalissimo of the Ottoman army, to a correspondent in the first interview ever given to the American press.
"Undoubtedly the world finds difficulty in understanding that the Turkey of today is no longer the Turkey of the past, but that nevertheless is a fact which should be apparent to all impartial observers," he continued.
"What do you want?"
"The exact reasons for Turkey's participating in the war," was the reply.
"You refer, no doubt," said Enver Pasha, "to the assertions in the newspapers of Great Britain, France and Russia, that Turkey entered the war to help Germany. That is very true at this moment, but when we mobilized, today Austria-Hungary and Germany helped us. We helped them. But we mobilized because there was no way out."
"Long before we took this step Russia had grown ugly on the Black Sea and in the Caucasus, invading our territory there, while England had already operated against Mesopotamia and had concentrated a fleet before the Dardanelles. We were unwilling to start hostilities and even after the Russians attacked our fleet in the Black Sea, we still waited one week before war was declared."
"We knew that Turkey would again be led to the slaughter block. Being unwilling that this should happen, we took the only course open."
"How did you manage to mobilize your army of almost two millions with limited resources?" he was asked.
"Conditions in the Caucasus are more satisfactory. Regarding the situation in the Dardanelles, I will say we are fully confident that it has been demonstrated that fighting down
the forts there will be a huge task for the allies. But even should that happen, we would still be masters of the situation there by means of howitzers, Replying to questions as to the present status of the campaign, the generalissimo said:
"Conditions in the Caucasus are
more satisfactory. Regarding the
situation in the Dardanelles, I will
say we are fully confident that it has
been demonstrated that fighting down
the forts there will be a huge task for
the allies. But even should that happen,
we would still be masters of the situation there by means of howitzers,
(Continued on Page 2, Column 2.)

Best Surgeons
Fail to Save
Capt. Darling

Cable Received by Father
Last Night Announces
Death of Adjutant.

WOUNDED IN TRENCH
Member of Forty-Eighth Highlanders Overseas Force, Married Recently.

At a late hour last night a cablegram was received by Robert Darling, Ravensmont, Rosedale, which stated that his son, Capt. R. Clifford Darling, had passed away.

The message was as follows: "Capt R. Clifford Darling, R. M. C., was wounded while on duty in the trenches on March 23. He was brought to London from Boulogne Base Hospital, March 21. He was attended in London by the very best surgeons, including Sir William Oser. He passed away very quietly at 9:15 tonight."

The late Capt. Darling was a member of the University Club, Hunt Club, the Canadian Military Institute, and was a member of the 48th Highlanders, acting as adjutant from the time he enlisted. He joined the Highlanders after graduating from the Royal Military College, Kingston. He would have been 27 years of age in May had he lived.

He was married while the Highlanders were at their Long Branch camp a few days prior to their departure to Valenciennes, to Miss Helmuth, younger daughter of I. F.
Helmuth, K.C.

DUTCH SHIP SUNK
BY GERMAN MINE

LONDON, April 18.—The Dutch steamship Olanda was sunk in the North Sea on Sunday, while on her way from Seaham, England, to Rotterdam, with a cargo of coal. Her crew were landed at Grimsby today by the trawler Onward. It is believed the Olanda struck a mine.

LONDON, April 19.—Various rumors
are current regarding the central powers. Austria, thru the medium of Venice, is credited with receiving with consternation the news of the extension of the Landsturm service to all classes between the ages of 18 and 50 years, while Rome is sponsor for the statement, attributed to a high German authority, that the German general staff has discarded all plans for an advance on the French front, deciding simply to remain on the defensive.

A despatch from Rome says the report has caused a deep impression because it is believed to signify that Germany has no hope of penetrating further into French territory.

British Capture Hill 60
Success is Notable One

Point Commanding Country to North and Northwest of Ypres Held Despite Heavy Counter-Attacks by Germans

LONDON, April 19, 6:50 p.m.—
The following official statement was issued tonight at the war office:
"A successful action, commencing on the evening of the 17th, culminated last night in the capture and complete occupation of an important point known as Hill 60, which lies about two miles south of Zille-belle, to the east of Ypres. This hill dominates the country to the north and northwest."
"The successful explosion of a mine under the hill commenced the operations, and many Germans were killed by this and 15 prisoners were captured, including an officer."

Repulsed Heavy Attack.
"At daybreak on the 18th the enemy delivered a heavy counter-attack against this hill, but they were everywhere repulsed.
They advanced in close formation and our machine gun battery got well into them."
"Desperate efforts were made all day yesterday by the Germans to recover the hill, but
they were everywhere repulsed with great loss. In front of the captured position, upon which we are now consolidated in strength, hundreds of dead are lying."
"Yesterday two more German aeroplanes were brought down in this area. Since the 16th inst., the total loss to the enemy is five aeroplanes."

GERMANS ABANDON OFFENSIVE PLANS?

Rome Credits Report That Tactics Will Be Defensive Alone.

AUSTRIA IS DISMAYED
Latest Call to Landsturm Said to Have Caused Consternation.

LONDON, April 19.—Various rumors
are current regarding the central pow-
ers. Austria, thru the medium of Venice, is credited with receiving with
consternation the news of the extension of the Landsturm service to all
classes between the ages of 18 and 50
years, while Rome is sponsor for the
statement, attributed to a high German authority, that the German general staff has discarded all plans for
an advance on the French front, deciding simply to remain on the defensive.

A despatch from Rome says the report has caused a deep impression because it is believed to signify that Germany has no hope of penetrating
further into French territory.

Column Moves
to Invasion of
North Hungary

Centre of Main Russian Southern Advance Now Below Rostok.

STRUGGLES BLOODY
German Officers Everywhere Control Austrian Tactics—Prisoners Depressed.

BY FREDERICK RENNET.
Special Cable to The Toronto World.

PETROGRAD, April 19.—The foremost Russian column in Hungary was on Saturday a dozen miles below Rostok towards Cumenoye. It forms the centre of the main Russian southern advance, which is developing slowly and successfully, with fierce infantry fighting. Officers of the Gal-lician army say that they never had such a succession of bloody struggles since the war began.

German officers everywhere control the Austrian tactics. Vast numbers of prisoners, both German and Austrian, are now reaching Kiev. The last consignment included men of the 32nd Prussian Infantry Regiment who began the war in Von Kluck's army, and subsequently fought at Solsona.
They were recently brought to Hungary and moved immediately from the train into battle in the southern Carpathians. They are as tired and depressed as the Austrians and declare that they are glad of a rest and grateful for the food and attentions shown them by the Russians.

Lower Danube Flooded.
The weather is now much better thruout the southern battle area, but the roads are still in a deplorable condition. The lower Danube is flooded and the islands in the river are under water. Inside the Roumanian frontier numbers of cattle have been drowned and the villagers are living on the roofs of their houses.

Van Hindenburg to Try Again.
There are signs that Von Hindenburg, who is in East Prussia, not in France, contemplates making an attempt this week at a formidable dis-version, with the object of counteracting the effect of the hopeless Austro-German position in the Carpathians. This is likely to take place in Suwalki Province, in the region of Mariampol, where a Russian army, westward of the lower Niemen, has for a fortnight past been gaining a succession of sectional victories.

Can Equip Ten Million Men.
At the produce exchange in Petrograd representatives of Russian trade and industry have opened a congress for strengthening co-operation in business. Gen. Shuvayev, director of the munition supply department, who has recently been in Moscow and Nihil Novgorod, spoke with pride of the solidarity of the nation. He is certain that Russia can feed and clothe her soldiers even if she sends more than ten millions of them into the field.

Three of Crew Killed.
The Turkish batteries opened fire.
The first shell struck the bridge and killed the captain; the second shell hit the chamber containing the electrical machines and the crew were obliged to leave the boat. The Turkish batteries, however, continued to fire.
Three of the crew were killed and seven wounded.

"The hostile air machines, learning of the fate of the submarine, flew over the straits and threw bombs at the periscope and conning tower in an attempt to keep the submarine from falling into Turkish hands. About the same time Turkish troops set out in boats to save the craft and crew."
"The wounded English sailors were taken to a hospital, where they were given attention."

CANADIAN NURSE
DIED IN FRANCE

ST. THOMAS, Ont., April 19.—Word was received here today of the death of the front from over-fatigue of Miss Percy Richardson, a nurse with the first Canadian contingent. Miss Richardson, who was a daughter of the late Mr. Justice Richardson of Regina, and a sister of Mrs. (Judge) Ermatinger of this city, made her home in Ottawa with a brother-in-law, Col. MacDonald. She served thru the South African war as a nurse with the Canadian troops.

Correct Styles in Men's Silk Hats.
Full dress requirements call for a silk hat that is smart and stylish—in-keeping with the occasion and appearance of the well-dressed man.

At Dineen's 140
Yonge street,
there is a representative showing of the very newest styles
of the new tapered crown,
which conforms
correctly to the present-day
style of dress.

The medium crown has also quite a following, while the ordinary staple style is much in demand by elderly men who are more conservative in their ideas. You can have a choice of these high-grade quality hats in the style you most desire, and the prices are most moderate, as follows: $5.50, $2.50, $7 and $8. Come in—for nothing else but to see the display —our salesmen are always courteous and obliging.

Germany to Pay For Murder of Fisher Folk

Admiralty Gives Solemn Warning in Announcing Loss of Trawler With Entire Crew—Second Outrage of Kind in Week.

LONDON, April 20.—(12:50 a.m.)—The admiralty has issued the following statement:
"Yesterday a German submarine torpedoed and sank the trawler Vanilla. The trawler Ferno endeavored to rescue the crew, out was fired at and driven off."
"All the crew of the Vanilla were lost. This killing of fisherfolk for no military purpose should not escape attention. It is the second murder of this character committed within a week. A careful record is kept of these events."

AUSTRIA SUPPORTS
BERNSTORFF NOTE

Disappointment Expressed at Attitude of U.S.A. Re Arms Shipments.

VENICE, April 19, via London.— The discussion aroused by the memorandum recently