

ere Hold M. C. Violating the ng Laws,

in Favor of the ty of the By-law.

Macrae yesterday in the case of M. C. an infraction of the 91, holding the li of an employe, and d costs. The text is an important one,

In this case Michael retail liquor license fee forming part of ed street, was charg- ing having unlaw- liquor, to wit, emies on Sunday, the Liquor License for the prosecution, a great reluctance, en in the bar room n about midnight of ll daybreak on Sun- now to them as if they drank, bottle of beer, the he bottle from the e cork draw out a drank two glasses of e were other perso y to say how many they were there. The power to his counsel, der had been in his months, had been drinking liquor during pro- admitted to him, had given two bot- the 6th inst. clear of them. defendant would not drunk in his or of 10 a. m. and day, when he was and the charged laid all doubt, in order quest of defendant's that a master can- responsible for the, unless such respons- expressed words (by a list of authorities in n. Having carefully think it necessary to hem, that on which to rely, Chisholm v. C. 133 There at p. has always been a w that the master is ily responsible for the d these words were by counsel. The 9) qualities of the of- as follows: 'Certain edgate v. Hayes, L. ulius v. Collins, G. de Cos. L. R. 13. G. B. cited, in which it the licensing act, the intention of the d that the Legislature on should be respon- servant. The decis- to that length. I a modification the in Bond v. G. B. n intention of section ne Regulation Act, drinking in licensed and the responsibility upon the licensed subject to a penalty. of interpretation the ad with the utmost and would be reduec at the defendant, by n in that behalf, has vied him of the of- Judge him to forfeit 50 and 25 cents, to in default of dis- for one month." convicted in the nes," holding the constitutional and written judgment, as at, Ah Sim, had in carrying an appeal and Jock Ting- ists were several y certain days during lawfully carried on r in the city of Vic- contrary to the atory definition of a peddler, I adopt urses, Justice: 'A n trader who goes carrying with him a peddler is a hawker ed at the hearing ind that the defend- ed, been acting as e for the correct ave taken it is not, which Mr. were good enough ration, and which e. In my opinion 2 of the Municipal extensive powers rincipal Legislature- 87, section 92, sub- Council has, in sec- of the Revenue By- and the power con- nicipal Act. the defendants sev- ly one dollar, to- of the license fee, nalty of twenty-one necessary, to be re- in default of dis- of the defendants week. One month of the payment of

in this case Michael retail liquor license fee forming part of ed street, was charg- ing having unlaw- liquor, to wit, emies on Sunday, the Liquor License for the prosecution, a great reluctance, en in the bar room n about midnight of ll daybreak on Sun- now to them as if they drank, bottle of beer, the he bottle from the e cork draw out a drank two glasses of e were other perso y to say how many they were there. The power to his counsel, der had been in his months, had been drinking liquor during pro- admitted to him, had given two bot- the 6th inst. clear of them. defendant would not drunk in his or of 10 a. m. and day, when he was and the charged laid all doubt, in order quest of defendant's that a master can- responsible for the, unless such respons- expressed words (by a list of authorities in n. Having carefully think it necessary to hem, that on which to rely, Chisholm v. C. 133 There at p. has always been a w that the master is ily responsible for the d these words were by counsel. The 9) qualities of the of- as follows: 'Certain edgate v. Hayes, L. ulius v. Collins, G. de Cos. L. R. 13. G. B. cited, in which it the licensing act, the intention of the d that the Legislature on should be respon- servant. The decis- to that length. I a modification the in Bond v. G. B. n intention of section ne Regulation Act, drinking in licensed and the responsibility upon the licensed subject to a penalty. of interpretation the ad with the utmost and would be reduec

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR.

VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1893.

HOME RULE.

The Government Amendments Are Carried and the Proceedings Bather Tame.

Mr. MacNeill Threatens a Caricaturist in the Lobby—Third Reading on Wednesday.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The strangers galleries of the House of Commons were crowded early this evening to see the members of the Government...

This week's Punch contains an extraordinary caricature of J. G. Swift MacNeill, Nationalist M.P. for South Devon...

WINNIPEG WIRINGS.

The C.P.R.'s New Grain Tariff—Will Stand Afloat From the Other Transcontinentals—(C) Battery En Route.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 24.—(Special)—The new grain tariff for Manitoba and the Northwest is announced by President Van Horne...

W. G. Clegg, a millwright, employed in the Keewatin lumber mills, was caught by a wheel this morning and instantly killed. The accident stopped the machinery of the mill.

Prince Komatsu Yorihito, cousin of the Mikado of Japan, arrived here from Vancouver and left to-day for the World's Fair.

Mr. Munro, a former resident of Winnipeg, died yesterday at Green Bay, Wis.

Mr. Burgess, deputy minister of the interior, returned to Ottawa last night.

Too Much British Capital Invested in the States is the Trouble.

MOUNT GIBRETTA, Pa., Aug. 24.—The largest crowd since the opening of the national convention assembled yesterday in the main auditorium William Jennings Bryan...

CAPITAL NOTES.

Important Changes Made in the Militia Staff for Economical Reasons.

Sir John Thompson Will Receive an Ovation—Dominion Rifle Matches.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 25.—Important changes in the militia staff, forsooth, some time ago, have been decided upon. The following officers are placed on the retired list of their respective ranks with gratuity...

CANADIAN NEWS.

(Special to the Colonist)

Stabbed by a Brother-in-Law. TORONTO, Aug. 25.—William Rogers and Thomas George, brothers-in-law, quarrelled last night over the manner in which George treated his wife...

Evidently a Financier. TORONTO, Aug. 25.—Lawrence Irwell, well-known Englishman about town, and who has figured for the past year or two as a contributor to the Westminster Review...

His Contempt Forged. TORONTO, Aug. 25.—Macdonald, who was sentenced to jail for three months for contempt of court, in refusing to answer questions put to him, was released this morning...

Preventive or Dead. TORONTO, Aug. 25.—It is announced from Fort Worth, Texas, that Alexander Bryce, a partner in the lumber firm of Bryce Bros., of this city, had died there.

An Injured Member. LONDON, Aug. 25.—News has reached here that Jos. Marshall, member of Parliament for North Middlesex, has been seriously hurt at Grand Bend.

McCarthy and Laurier. OTTAWA, Aug. 25.—It is reported to-night that when W. G. Foy, Mr. McCarthy's organizer was here last week, he endeavored to induce Mr. McCarthy to accept the nomination...

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, that at the next session Mr. McCarthy would not put up candidates in constituencies where Liberals have a better chance of success than Mr. McCarthy supporter.

Judge Scott Rests. TORONTO, Aug. 26.—Judge Scott, of Peel, has forwarded his resignation to Ottawa, after twenty-six years' occupation of the position.

Fire at the Portage. PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Aug. 26.—This morning a two-story building occupied by W. L. Lyall, tailor, was totally destroyed by fire; the stock was mostly all saved.

True to His Name. ALVINGTON, Aug. 25.—John Coon, a private banker, who is wanted here for forgery, has been arrested by Detective Rogers in Detroit. Coon assigned and discharged. His forged papers had been negotiated with the Molson's bank to the amount of something like $35,000.

Fire at a Noted Stock Farm. MONTREAL, Aug. 25.—The Hara National company's stables at Outremont were burned this morning, with a large quantity of live stock. Fortunately, most of the blood stock had been sent to the World's Fair, or the loss would have been much greater.

Ralph Smith & Co. Burned Out. TORONTO, Aug. 26.—The premises of Ralph Smith & Co., lithographers, has been gutted by fire. Loss, $30,000; covered by insurance.

Fell Overboard. GRAVENHURST, Aug. 26.—James Readshaw, a 14-year-old son of G. A. Readshaw, fell overboard from a steamer yesterday and was drowned.

Their Candidate Already Chosen. ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 25.—The Liberal of Westigonah has nominated George Haddow as their candidate for the Commons at the next general election.

The Effects of the Storm. WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Reports of wrecks and loss of life as the result of the great storm on the Atlantic Coast, on Wednesday night, are reaching the Life Saving Bureau.

St. John's Candidate Already Chosen. ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 25.—The Liberal of Westigonah has nominated George Haddow as their candidate for the Commons at the next general election.

Their Candidate Already Chosen. ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 25.—The Liberal of Westigonah has nominated George Haddow as their candidate for the Commons at the next general election.

Their Candidate Already Chosen. ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 25.—The Liberal of Westigonah has nominated George Haddow as their candidate for the Commons at the next general election.

Their Candidate Already Chosen. ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 25.—The Liberal of Westigonah has nominated George Haddow as their candidate for the Commons at the next general election.

Their Candidate Already Chosen. ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 25.—The Liberal of Westigonah has nominated George Haddow as their candidate for the Commons at the next general election.

Their Candidate Already Chosen. ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 25.—The Liberal of Westigonah has nominated George Haddow as their candidate for the Commons at the next general election.

Their Candidate Already Chosen. ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 25.—The Liberal of Westigonah has nominated George Haddow as their candidate for the Commons at the next general election.

JOHNSON'S CURRENCY BILL.

It Provides for the Exchange of Treasury Notes for Government Bonds.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—For two and a quarter hours yesterday the same committee on banking and currency discussed the exchange of treasury notes for Government bonds at the request of the holders of the latter. The committee then adjourned until next Tuesday, when the author of the bill would decide whether the bill can be taken up in the House.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

FRISCO'S FAIR.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

JOHNSON'S CURRENCY BILL.

It Provides for the Exchange of Treasury Notes for Government Bonds.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—For two and a quarter hours yesterday the same committee on banking and currency discussed the exchange of treasury notes for Government bonds at the request of the holders of the latter. The committee then adjourned until next Tuesday, when the author of the bill would decide whether the bill can be taken up in the House.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

FRISCO'S FAIR.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.

Director-General De Young Turns the First Sod of the Site. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Ground was broken to-day in Golden Gate park for the California mid-winter international exposition with appropriate exercises and in the presence of over 50,000 people, who had gathered to witness this important event in the history of San Francisco.