

Alexanders and Cæsars of antiquity, have left behind them their monuments of destruction, and are remembered with hatred ; while these more exalted characters, who first taught society and science, are blest with the gratitude of every age and country. Of more use was one philosopher, though a heathen, to the world, than all the heathen conquerors that ever existed.

SHOULD the present revolution be distinguished by opening a new system of extended civilization, it will receive from heaven the highest evidence of approbation ; and as this is a subject to which the Abbe's powers are so eminently suited, I recommend it to his attention, with the affection of a friend, and the ardour of a universal citizen.
