The Inn has accommodation for 350 guests, and is situated in a beautiful natural park of fourteen acres. Every room has an outlook of exceptional attraction, a view over a water and woodland vista from every room in the entire structure. The utmost care has been taken to leave undisturbed the natural beauty surrounding the Inn. The many densely wooded knolls and look-out points in the vicinity afford shaded, cool places on warm summer days.

Bathing beaches and bath houses have been prepared on a sheltered bay close to the hotel, and the water of the river and lakes being quite soft and throughout the season at a perfect temperature, the comfort and safety of the guests is assured.

Minaki may be justly termed the home of the maskinonge, but in addition to this species of the finny tribe are to be found the finest varieties of lake trout, pukerel, white fish and sturgeon. Sturgeon captured by the Indians have been brought in weighing as much as 138 pounds. Canoes who are familiar with the adjacent lakes are available and can assure the most exacting fisherman a fine day's sport with the trout, while the novice who
