

CONTENTS.

CHAP. XIV.

Situation, &c. of Virginia. Conveniency of its rivers for navigation. Beasts and Birds of the country. The opossum. 206

CHAP. XV.

Towns in Virginia few and small. Tobacco, its cultivation. Trade in that and other commodities. People in Virginia. White and Black. 212

CHAP. XVI.

Attempts to settle Virginia; three unsuccessful. Settled at last by Lord Delawar. 217

CHAP. XVII.

Virginia holds out against Cromwell, and is reduced. Bacon's rebellion. Its causes. Bacon dies. Peace restored. 222

CHAP. XVIII.

Maryland. The time of settling it. Grant to lord Baltimore. Attempts of king James to deprive him of his jurisdiction. He is deprived of it on the revolution. He is restored. Capital of Maryland. Its trade and inhabitants. 226

CHAP,