

FIG.	PAGE
293. Günther's forceps for first upper molars	295
294. Frick and Hauptner's "Universal" forceps	295
295. Showing the incisor and molar teeth of a six year old horse in position	296
296. Günther's tooth pickers	296
297. Fulera	296
298. Günther's forceps for the incisors	298
299. Ordinary forceps for the incisors	298
300-302. Dental forceps for dogs	300
303. Periostitis alveolaris ossificans of the third molar (horse)	301
304. Epulis in a mastiff: showing deformity of face and upper jaw	304
305. The same: interior of the mouth	304
306. Facial edema after injury	310
307. Osteomata from skull of a three year old bullock	332
308. Stock trephine	316
309. Hand trephine	316
310. Bone screw	316
310a. Elevator	317
311. Chisel	317
312. Lenticular knife	317
313. Periosteum knife	317
314. Exfoliative trephine	317
315. Perforating trephine	317
316. Head of a horse (B)	318
317. Lateral view of horse's skull: the facial sinuses exposed	319
318. Necrosis of the turbinated bones	321
319. Infero-lateral view of the laryngeal region (B)	332
320. Parotid gland and Stenson's duct. (Semi-schematic.) (C)	333
323. Actinomycosis of the parotid gland in an ox	337
322-325. Plastic operations (B)	342
326. Incomplete union of fracture of the body of the lower jaw	344
327. Fracture of the lower jaw united by wiring (C)	345
328. Cancer of the inferior maxilla	352
329. Botryomycosis of the lower jaw	353
330. Osteoporosis of the upper jaw	354
331. Pre-auricular fistula due to presence of a dentigerous cyst	364
332. Günther's catheter	367
333. Deep tissues in the parotid region: opening the guttural pouches. (Semi-schematic.) (C)	368
334. Splint for fracture of horn core	378
335. Form of splint for fracture of horn core	378
336. Zehden's syringe	384
337. Zehden's trocar	384
338. Sub-luxation of the 3rd cervical vertebra, as seen from the left side	395
339. Sub-luxation of the 3rd cervical vertebra, as seen from the right side	395
340. Distortion of the neck (torticollis) in consequence of the calkin of a hind shoe becoming caught in the head-collar	396
341. Knudsen's iron splint for distortion of the neck	400
342. Probang and mouth gag for cattle	418
343. Oesophageal	419