

INDEX OF TOPICS.

Section	Witness (continued).	Section
475	attesting witness of a will . . .	582
483	time of interest; voir dire . . .	583
484	burden of proof	584
485	mode of proof	585
486	time of objection	586
487	judge determines	587
488	marital relationship as a dis-
6	qualification	600-620
92-501	history	600
498	policy; statutes	601, 602
499	general principles	603, 604
500	mistress, bigamous marriage . .	605
	for whom is the spouse disqualified	606-610
05-509	exceptions based on neces-
516	sity	612
517	exceptions based on statutes .	613-617
518	statutory abolition	619, 620
	knowledge as a qualification . .	650-721
0-524	knowledge as requiring ob-
520	servation	650
1, 522	distinction between experi-
523	ence and knowledge	558, 651
524	knowledge of a class of
	things	653
5-531	burden of proof of knowl-
526	edge	654
527	witness specifying grounds
528	of knowledge	655
	personal observation required .	656 knowledge amounting to a 530	belief or impression	658
	knowledge based on insuf-
5-571	ficient data	659
5-562	identity, age, etc.	660
4-566	state of mind	661
567	scientific improbabilities . . .	662
3, 569	speculative injuries	663
570	that a thing would have
	been observed	664
	scientific instruments or tables .	665
571	subordinates' records or scientific books	665
5-587	one's own age	667
575	another person's name	667
576	interpreted conversations . . .	668
577	telephone conversations	669
	hypothetical questions	672-684
	party's admissions	1053
578	medical matters (sanity, dis-
579	ease, etc.)	687-690
	foreign law	690
580	reputation	691, 692
	handwriting	693-709
581	by seeing the act of writing .	694-698

Witness (continued).	Section
by seeing genuine documents	699-708
by expert comparison	709
value	711-721
general principles	711-713
land	714
services	715
personalty	716
sundry rules	717-721
dying declarant	1445
keeper of books of account	1530, 1555
officer making public document	163
notary	1635
recollection; see RECOLLEC-TION.
II. Examination mode of interrogation in general	768-788
leading questions	769-779
misleading questions	780
annoying questions	781
repetition of questions	782
multiple examiners	783
length of examination	783
judge's questions	784
narration without questions . .	785
non-responsive answers	785
improper suggestions	786
prepared deposition	787
answering by reference	788
prior conference with attorney	788
non-verbal testimony	789-797
gesture, etc.	789
models, maps, diagrams	791
photographs	792-797
written testimony
sundry modes	799-801
depositions	802-806
see also DEPOSITIONS.
absent witness' testimony . . .	807
see also JUDICIAL ADMIS-SIONS.
interpreted testimony	811, 812
aliens, deaf-mutes, persons ill or inaudible, interpreters, translations	811
confessions; see CONFESSIONS.
testimony under duress	815
direct examination; see EX-AMINATION, III.
cross-examination, in general;
see CROSS-EXAMINATION.	