Wednesday Evening, March 1.

There was a falling off in activity and consequent narrow price changes on the mining exchanges to-day, the general list of Cobalts making absolutely no headway. In special instances stocks showed a slight inclination to drag, but nothing more than small fractional declines followed, and the easier disposition was set down as due more to the duiness of the mar-than to any change in sentiment.

The majority of issues which were traded in to any extent were under pressure to a moderate degree, selling orders in brokers' hands having a ten-dency to depress values. On this account such stocks as Beaver, Timis-kaming, Cobalt Lake and Right of Way sagged below yesterday's figures, but the movement was too gradual to be indicative of any pronounced but the movement was too gradual to be indicative of any pronounced trend.

Little Nipissing gained a fraction of a point from its opening figures, under what was taken to be inside buying. The directors of the company met this week, but it is understood that no action was taken regarding the over-issue of the shares, and meanwhile the street is somewhat at a loss to fathom just what the position of the stockholders is.

Green-Meehan made a small advance on the report of the strike on the pro-

Green-Meehan made a small advance on the report of the strike on the property, but the stock was offered freely at the higher figures, and the movement was not carried far.

Viewed broadly the mining market was at a stand-still to-day, and until something turns up to arouse en-thusiasm, nothing but a trading affair is promised.

Hollinger shares were about as active as usual, selling between $6.38 and
