Member of Saskatchewan Legislature Says Question Was Sprung on Them.

MEDICINE HAT, Alta., June 28.— (Special.)—Further evidence of the solidifying of the Conservative party in Saskatchewan in opposition to re-ciprocity was furnished at R. L. Borciprocity was furnished at R. L. Borden's meeting in Maple Creek this afternoon. The chairman of the meeting was W. J. Wylie, who represents Maple Creek riding in the Saskatchewan legislature. Mr. Wylie left the chamber before the vote on the region chamber before the vote on the reciocity pact, but as he made no pro test against it he took responsibility for it here to-day. Explaining his occupancy of the chair at an antireciprocity meeting:
