Worcester, Mass., Aug. 1—Philadelphia carsmen showed the best racing in the opening day's sprint of the regatta of the National Association of amateur carsmen on Lake Quinsigamond today and returned winners in the senior sculls and the association senior sculls. In order to win these races John B. Kelly of the Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia outrowed Walter Hoover of the Duluth Boat Club in the senior event, and Kelly's club mate, Paul Costello, gave the Minnesota man his second defeat in the association race. Hoover was heavily backed by Duluth supporters.

Elmer Doan and Geo. Raney, both of Buffalo, staged a great six-round battle. Raney is a great favorite in Toronto, and had the majority of the crowd pulling for him, but Doan is one of the busiest fighters ever seen in the local ring. He was right on top of his man all the time and gave him a good lacing.

Benny Gould and Curly Wilshire went on in the curtain raiser and put up a hard bout, with Benny having a lead in the early rounds, but Wilshire came strong at the finish and made it a draw. The three-mile race betwen Queal and Longboat was easy for Queal. Longboat took the lead at the start, but Queal syrinted into the lead in the second lap and held it for the first mile, which was covered in 5.05. Longboat took the lead again in the second mile and held it until the final lap of the third, when Queal went to the front and won by seventy yards. Time 15.53.
