"If we limit opportunity we will have put the brakes on our national development. Will the individual strive for success if he knows the hard won prize is to be snatched from his fingers at the last by his government? We are still too young a nation to begin tearing down. We must build up, build up for years to come. The very children in the schools should be taught the need of our development."

Speaking of his recent visit to France Mr. Rockefeller said:

"The French people hate us, and they will crush us if they can. They want our money. They want the patronage of our tourists. But they can want our money. They want the patronage of our tourists. But they hate us. They never let slip an opportunity to take quick advantage of our mistakes. This is a struggle for supremacy.
