Fingers and Toes Frozen

William Preston, who lives near Hall-burton, is in the General Hospital suffering from severe frostbites to his fingers and toes. He walked from his home one day last week, to visit his son, about 50 rods away, and on arson, about 50 rods away, and on arriving there found no person at home. He waited around for some one to put in an appearance and was overcome by the cold. At his home he was treated by Dr. Giles, who advised his removal to the General Hospital. It is feared that it may be necessary to amputate several fingers and toes.

In Labor's Ranks. Mr. H. M. Eaton, secretary-treasurer of the International Boot and Shoe Workers' Union of Boston, addressed a largely attended meeting of the local branch of the union last night in Richmond Hall. Mr. Eaton spoke of the benefits to be derived that propagation benefits to be derived thru organization in his union, and dwelt on matters affecting the trade.

The Iron Moulders' Union met last night in Richmond Hall. The principal topic of discussion was the case of the Gurney Foundry Company, which, the union claims, is not a union shop. The matter will be thoroly discussed at a special meeting, to be held on Monday night, when some action will likely be taken.

Henry Long, aged 19 years, was admitted to the General Hospital yesterday suffering from a broken thigh and numerous bruises, sustained by falling from a cable car at the Victoria Mine, near Sudbury, last Tuesday. He fell a distance of 20 feet.

Syrian Olive Oil Soap

(From the Holy Land.) 20c Cakes Saturday 10c. This soap is made by the farmers of Syria direct from purest ofive oil. It is known there as the "Cleopatra" brand, and has been manuafctured from the same formula for hundreds of years. Its particular virtue lies in its absolute purity and its excellent qualities as a hair soap for ladies. It thoroughly cleanses the scalp and hair, leaving the latter soft and glossy, and at the same time stopping falling and increasing the growth. It's the shampoo soap "par excellence." 20c worth for 10c Saturday.
