The fire started in the very heart of the varnish room, on the building, in the varnish room, on the second storey, and blazed as only varnish can blaze. There was a large quantity of paints and oils, too, and the fire spread in every direction with amazing speed. The piles of seasoned lumber were almost as good fuel as the varnish, and by the time that the firemen arrived the fiames had reached the windows on every side, while dense smoke prevailed.

FOR THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE.

Collingwood Enterprise (Conservative): W. F. Maclean, Conservative M.P. for South York, is ometimes dubbed the Ishmaelite of parliament but we cannot help but think if there were more

Billy Macleans in Parliament it would be better

Our personal acquaintance with the gentleman is of the most casual character, but what we, as has been singularly consistent in this age of grab and plunder, and the position he occupies on public questions more nearly represents the views of the majority of the Conservative party than that of many of the so-called leaders. The lukewarm opposition of the Conservatives to the autonomy bills was, to say the least disap-demnity grab was humiliating in the extreme. As far as we can learn the member for South York is the only member on either side of the house who refused to join in the exploitation of only member with courage to stick up for th rights of the people against the corporations.

A public man is judged by his record, and while others may sneer and impute sinister motives, the record still remains, and W. F. Maclean is the "It" with the mass of the people of
