Still More Mild Talk From Their Newspapers.

The State of Feeling in the Transvaal is Warlike.

Spain Appears To Be On the Brink of a Crisis.

Irish Political Plans-Big Grant for the French Navy Wanted.

London, Dec. 30.-The Johannesburg correspondent of the Times says: Yesterday's edition of the Rand Post contains further inflammatory articles. The paper calls Saturday's proceedings "a rebellious plot against the existence of the republic," and styles the petition "a lying and libelous document compiled in conjunction with the British agents of office." It suggests that if "a couple of wire-pullers were shot it would avert a formal war, and says that Great Britain should be requested to appoint a new consular staff, failing immediate compliance with which request, the excoquators of the members of the present staff should be withdrawn."

A WARNING. The Johannesburg correspondent of the Daily Mail, who utters a warning against the optimistic reports sent to London in the Kruger interests, says: I have interviewed the British consul, who says that Saturday's demonstration impressed him as being based upon deep public feeling, while the delegation which presented the petition was, to his personal knowledge, composed of the highest character and the Utmost sincerity. Signs are multiplying that the Transvaal sentiment has been hounded to the point of asserting claims for justice. The ex-reform leaders are debarred, under pain of banishment, from interfering in politics, but they declare that despite Pretoria terrorism, they will not keep silence much longer. The present temper of the community is such that opposing demonstrations will almost inevitably be followed by SEVERE RIOTS. I learn on high authority that during the negotiations at Pretoria regarding Saturday's demonstration, the British agent carefully avoided any admission that the British Government assented to the Public Meetings Act. He even suggested that Great Britain might test the legality of that measure under the London convention. The present position has aroused the deepest public excitement known since the Jameson raid, and it is plain that something must be done quickly to terminate a humiliating and intolerable situation.

The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail says: President Kruger, in the course of an interview, has asserted that he deprecates the warlike article published on Wednesday by the Boer organ, the Rand Post, and declares that he will prohibit the proposed anti-Jameson demonstration.

IN SIERRA LEONE. Advice received from Sierra Leone announces that the military demonstration in the hinterland has commenced in right earnest. Eight hundred porters have left Freetown, escorted by a strong detachment of the West African Regiment, under the command of Major Sutton, for the Bonietta district. One thousand more carriers left Freetown for the Pangama district, followed by another detachment of the West African Regiment, under Col. Cunningham.

TO STAVE OFF SPAIN'S CRISIS. Madrid, Dec. 30.-The newspapers here express the opinion that the decision attributed in this city to President McKinley to have the treaty of London, Dec. 30.-Irish political plans are the subject of much discussion at the present time. Timothy M. Healy, the anti-Parnellite leader, says, in an interview, that while the old land question in Ireland was prominent, there would be no land war. He thought a greater toleration among the party factions would adjust the question, and would also make way for a union of Irishmen. When this union was secured, Mr. Healy said, home rule was assured.

John Redmond, the Parnellite leader, said he rejoiced that the Liberal party in England was in a disorganised condition. It was the alliance with the Liberals, he said, which had prevented the growth of Irish nationalism, which will alone bring home rule to Ireland. As regards land agitation, Mr. Redmond said the only question raised in that regard now would be an effort to divide up the grazing lands.

THE FRENCH NAVY. London, Dec. 30.-A dispatch from Paris says the French Parliament will be asked to add 304,500,000 francs to the naval budget for 1899, of which amount 112,000,000 francs will be expended upon the construction of 63 vessels already begun and 28 others to be started in 1899.

ROTHSCHILD'S WEALTH. London, Dec. 30.-The late Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild left £100,000 to the Evelyn Hospital for Children, founded in memory of his wife. He made also other considerable charitable bequests.

RUSSIA WILL RETALIATE. A cable from St. Petersburg says: It is reported that Russia will retaliate on Germany for the recent expulsion of numerous Russian subjects from Germany, by expelling an equal number of German workmen from Russia. The expulsion of the Russians was but a part of the wholesale banishment of Danes, Hollanders, Austrians and Russians from Prussia, in accordance with the new law providing that no foreign laborers should be permitted to reside within Prussian boundaries unless they became citizens. Russia will receive the support of Denmark and Austria in this measure of retaliation.

BRITAIN STORM-SWEEP. London, Dec. 30.-Another violent gale swept over the English Channel and the east coast of Great Britain yesterday, and the trans-channel service was again interrupted. Several small vessels have been reported, and damage has been done at different seaports.

The Spanish brig Gabriel (Capt. Pages), from Cardenas, Nov. 22, has arrived at Corunna, having on board ten of the crew of the American bark Evie Reed (Capt. J. D. Steelman), from New York, Nov. 25, for Bahia, which is lost. The crew were rescued near the island of Bermuda.

FASHODA

London, Dec. 30.-The Anglo-French disputes over territorial possessions in Africa have been opened up by the diplomatic settlement. Lord Salisbury has formally proposed to the new French ambassador, M. Paul Camon, that a joint commission be appointed for the delimitation of the frontiers. Lord Salisbury, however, in his notes, partially lays down the French line, conceding to France certain territory to the south and west of a line drawn westward from the Ubanghi watershed, but firmly claiming for Egypt and England a sphere of influence over the Bahr-el-Ghazal, Darfur, Borchu and all the territories to the east of Lake Chad. These diplomatic negotiations are the result of Major Marchand's evacuation of Fashoda.

At the time the French force occupied that portion on the Nile, Lord Salisbury firmly notified the French Government that no negotiations could be considered for the settlement of the long-standing African territorial disputes until the French withdrew completely from the Nile. News of Major Marchand's withdrawal from Fashoda and retreat back into the interior of Africa having been received last week, the British Government moved to the diplomacy for a peaceful settlement of the matter. How France will regard England's declaration that the Bahr-el-Ghazal region and the shores of Lake Chad are beyond the sphere of negotiations, is doubtful, as it is these very regions east of the Nile that the French have been most desirous of securing. If France declines to accept the conditions the whole matter may again revert to the critical stage it reached at the time of Marchand's occupation of Fashoda.

DIED SUDDENLY. London, Dec. 29.-Frederick Chalmers, a partner in the banking firm of Brown, Shipley & Co., died suddenly this morning. He attended the bank yesterday and was in good health.

CABLE NOTES. The Press Association announces that the Duke of York will probably be made a rear admiral before the squadron of American ships, which is expected to visit Europe, reaches Spithead, in whose reception, it is added, the duke will take a prominent part.

Herr Christian Didin, one of the oldest members of the German Reichstag, died Thursday in his 83th year.

Baron Curzon, of Kedleston, the new Viceroy of India, and Lady Curzon, with their children, have arrived at Bombay.

There was a renewal Thursday of the uproarious sessions in the lower house of the Hungarian Diet. While the premier, Baron Banffy, was defending the government's policy, the Rightist shouts were almost drowned by the cries of the Leftists.

Lord Salisbury, it is stated, will be asked to protest against the establishment of differential duties, either in the case of the Philippines or Cuba.

The appointment of Major Pinault as deputy minister of Militia, dates from Dec. 7.
