STAKES ALL FOR DOG

Will Carry Case to Supreme Court to

Chicago, Aug. 15. - Man's affection for his dog and woman's love for her child, themes of the masters and the melodramatists, have crossed wires in Indiana avenue. The man has staked his fortune of $30,000 for preserving the dog's life. The woman has dedicated "her remaining days" to her vow that the net shall die

Thus begins a notable dog day contention. It is a contest of money successfully physicked. Experiments against poverty, of a civil war colonel have been tried recently in the injec- against the wife of a working man, of an enraged neighborhood against a bachelor. The secondary figures are a 7-year-old fox terrier, known as Bessie, and a pretty little girl, Irene Poole, who numbers eight summers.
