WHITE WYANDOTTE
ASSN. OF ONTARIO
HOLDS EXHIBITION

The first meeting of the White Wyandotte Association of Ontario since its organization was held Tuesday night in the C. O. O. F. Hall. The object of the association is to improve the poultry standard in Ontario, especially the condition of the White Wyandotte breed.

James McNeil, who is an ex-president of the London Poultry Association, addressed the meeting on "How to Care for Chickens." He also judged some birds which were on exhibition, and the

Health For All in Neal's Bread With Good Marmalade

When you take the wholesome fruit juices and sugars of real good orange marmalade and combine them with the nourishing cereal goodness of NEAL'S ALOAFA BREAD, you get a food dainty that, for mouth-watering relish, pleasing appearance and downright honest, body-building value is hard to beat.

Cut into a loaf of NEAL'S ALOAFA BREAD and spread each slice lightly with good butter, then put on a generous layer of ripe, golden orange marmalade. Each hungry child will fairly revel in this most appetizing of slices, and, best of all, it will do them any amount of good, if your bread is

Neal's Aloafa Bread

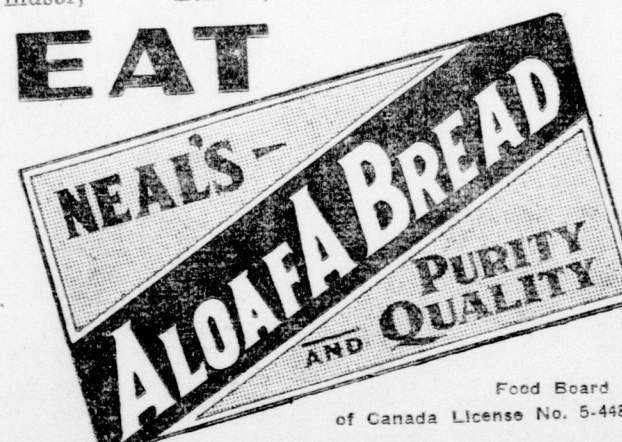

Adults like it, too. Next time they all ask you, "What's for dessert?" and you say "NEAL'S BREAD with Marmalade," you'll hear a chorus from little ones and grown-ups that will tell you your choice is a popular one.

One thing! There are a dozen good brands of marmalade on the market, but only one NEAL'S ALOAFA BREAD. Insist on this best of loaves. Your grocer can supply you, or our wagons will call daily.

CHEEK BONE BROKEN AND EYE INJURED BY LARGE BELT BREAKING

Charles Pedoniquette Painfully Hurt While at Work.

Charles Pedoniquette, a Cape Croker Indian, and an employee of the London and Petrolia Barrel Works, had his cheek bone broken and his right eye injured at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when a large belt, near which he was working, broke and struck him. He was removed to Victoria Hospital where Dr. W. J. Stevenson attended him. It is not thought that he will lose the sight of his eye. The unfortunate man had been in the army three years and was discharged here from the 10th Battalion. His home is at 712 1-2 Grey street.
