Capt. Hinds Deliver Rousing Recruiting Addresses.

The concert given at massey man on Saturday evening by the massed bands of the C.E.F. Battalions, 74th, 75th, 81st, 87th, 83rd and 92nd, under the ausp.cee of the Citizens' Recruiting League, was an unqualified success. The hall was effectively decorated with trophies of flags by the T. Eaton Company, and beautiful plants from the city hot-houses, contributed by the courtesy of his worship the mayor, who is president of the league, transformed the usual austere aspect of Massey Hall into a scene that was extremely pleasing. The league felt honored by the presence of Dr. Torring on, who evinced his pleasure at the excellent rendition of the various numbers by the bands, and especially of the magnificent singing of Mrs. Mackelcan, who looked very handsome in a gown of white satin, against which the beautiful Richmond roses, presented by the league, formed an effective note of color. Mr. Moriey Sherris' charming singing was much enjoyed, the audience giving him a hearty encore. In the intermission Mr. Charles Henderson auctioned a pair of connaught, contained in a scarlet morrocco box and given by her to the league. They brought $25. Mr. Babayan most kindly contributed a silken Persian rug, which was bought for $30, and a gold nugget scarf pin was sold for $6. The band of the $7th (the American Legion) being a bugle band, played alone, in roduced by Mr. Zealley, brigade bandmaster, Sergt. Severa, was presented by Dr. Norman Allen, on behalf of the buglers of the band with a silver bugle as a token of their affection for him. Mr. Jules Brazil, Sergt. Major Kerr, Mr. Clark, violinist, and Mr. Douglas Cowan also contributed to the program. Girl ushers dressed in white, played an important part in the proceedings, and "Auid Lang Syne" preceding "God Save the King" brought the evening to a close. The proceeds of the concert will go to the overseas bands to help in paying for instruments, music, etc.

the audience interested last night until the scheduled program could be followed. A call for recruits did not bring any men to the platform but the segreants working thru the audience signed up a number.

Capt, Hinds made a rousing speech in which he called upon every fit man to join one of the battalions now forming. "We must pay attention to the call from the boys at the front," he said. "More men are needed to hold the lines."

Sergeant Perry who has already done his bit urged the necessity for immediate enlistment and told of conditions at the firing line.

Colonel Cooper, 198th Battalion, put it up plainly to the unencumbered men. He said: "If I put on this uniform and leave my wife and children. I deserve no more credit than the most humble private in the ranks. That is the spirit of the citizen soldier. We don't want peace and altho it is not my duty to tell any man he should be in khaki, for you know your responsibilities better than I do, there is a duty to perform. Men are needed now and every man who can should en list."

Col. Jolly, 97th Battalion, was given an enthusiastic reception. He gave an account of some of his experiences as a soidier and said men were making big sacrifices to come to Canada and for the American Legion. Lieut.-Col. Le Grand Reed Would Not Like to See It in Force Here.

AT HIPPODROME SUNDAY

Twelve Men Signed Up With the Sportsmen Yesterday Afternoon.

Twelve recruits were signed after the recruiting meeting beld in the Hippodrome Theatre Sunday. After officers of the Sportsmen's Battalion had made their appeal, Lt.-Col. Le Grand Reed, who needs a few hundred men hefore his 170th Battalion is completed, told the audience that it was the duty of every man who is physically fit to enlist at once. The speaker said that the war office in London had called on Canada for 500,000 more mer, and if they were not really needed conscription would not have been put into force in the motherland. The colonel did not think that it would be necessary for conscription in Canada, and stated that he would not like to see conscription put into force in this country. Twelve recruits were signed after
