"ON TRIAL"

Tonight, at the Alexandra Theatre, Cohan and Harris' big success, "On Trial," by Elmer L. Reizenstein will inaugurate its second and last week's engagement in Toronto. Sceldom has theatrical offering aroused such genuine enthusiasm as "On Trial," has, as evidenced by the eager crowds that have flocked to the Alexandra Theatre during the past week, and the extra large advance sale for this week. The story of "On Trial" is pretty well known by this time, and it is sufficient to say that it is filled with real surprises, and its final climax, an incessantly arranged that its disclosure fairly lift an audience from their seats.

"THE ROSELAND GIRLS."
"Blotch" Cooper presents "The Roseland Girls," which will be the coming attraction at the Gaiety Theatre this week.

This organization has clever comedians, good-looking, gingers, girls, catchy and tuneful songs, and other wonderful surprises that go to make up a merry, live-gaited burlesque. In the cast are such clever artists as Solly Ward, Frankie Rice, Stella Wood, The
Big Four, Minerva Emmett and Lynn Cantor, including the famous "Roseland" chorus.

LOEW'S.
The celebrated, huge, spectacular musical production, "Around the World," will be the headliner at Loew's this week. This act has been a sensation in all of Marcus Loew's theatres in New York.

Helen Smith and company will present a comedy sketch, "Hiring a Maid," —a scream from start to finish.

Louise Mayo, who has been in Toronto before, will present a refined piano and song offering, with costume changes.

The Empire Comedy Four, offering the latest songs and dances, Amador, accordionist, the Belmonts, sensational acrobats, and others complete the bill.

SHEA'S.
For this week the Shea management announces at the headline attraction,

"The Virginian Judge." Kelly has a great sense of humor and is complete master of a dozen different dialects.

musicians and have excellent voices.

HIPPODROME.
In "The Eye of the Night" the Hippodrome presents this week the single five-part feature, with America's greatest character actor, William F.
Thompson, in the leading role. "The Eye of the Night" is the title of the special feature of the bill, showing a pretentious poing and electrical novelty. Dan Burke and his Broadway Girls have a very good show in the Flying Keel-ers, a thrilling mid-air contest. Solly
Ward, Frankie Rice, Stella Wood, The
Cantor, including the famous "Roseland" chorus.

"THE BLACK FEATHER."
The celebrated comedian, Albert Brown, and his English company, arrived in Toronto yesterday, all in readiness for the first performance of "The Black Feather," at the Grand Opera House tonight. The play is from the pen of the Canadian dramatist, W.
A. Tremayne, and has been in rehar-sal in New York for six weeks. No actor is more popular with the Canadian public than Mr. Brown, and his box office sale has been large. The tonight's is a first performance, a complete and adequate scenic production has been provided for Mr. Brown in an interview. The war has shown as nothing else could, the great possibilities of Canada. Mr. Brown is not merely in a patriotic, but in a major sense. This was especially true of theatrical managers. No longer did they regard Canada as a country with one or two cities and nothing more.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION."
This week is announced as the last week at Massey Hall of D. W. Griffith's mighty spectacle, "The Birth of a Nation," which has had such a tremendous vogue with all classes of theatregoers in this city. Souvenir cards will be on Tuesday, and on that day every lady in attendance at either the matinee or night performance will be presented with a handsome souvenir to commemorate the occasion.
Seats for all performances during the week are now on sale at the ticket office at Massey Hall, and an early booking of seats is advised.

AT THE REGENT.
"Rolling Stones," which will be shown at the Regent Theatre today and Tuesday, was selected as an especially suitable play, because there is so much action in the story, and because the many complications of the plot are so readily evolved on the screen. Nor is it by any means devoid of thrills in its adaptation. In one of the early scenes Mr. Moore is found dangling by one hand from the top of a bridge, threatening to "end it all" by letting go; then there are near hold-ups, bank robberies, a murderous adventure with a trunk that is wildly stocked with feminine and male attire.

In addition, there will be the usual program of refined comedies, scenic features, symphony concerts and Miss Athens Buckley, dramatic soprano.

THE GINGER GIRLS.
Beginning Monday matinee, the Ginger Girls and Ben Small begin a week's engagement at the Star Theatre. This organization, under the direction of one of the very best attractions appearing on the burlesque circuit, with its high salaried cast of excellent artists, has been a great success. The organization is a real show and a magnificent scenic and electrical effects, popular and exclusive musical numbers and ensembles in abundance.
Nifty costumes are worn by a clever cast of chorus girls who win you from the start if you are but half willing to be won. Ben Small assumes the leading role in the two-act and five-act comedy, "The Girl at the Cigar Stand," a comedy written and staged by himself, and said to be the best effort of his career. The other
