Michigan League games here had the usual holiday crowds, who had the satisfaction of seeing a double win by the Red Sox, while Hamilton was slightly checked.

KINGSTON POWER ALLOTMENT.

Kingston, Ont., July 1.—Manager Folger of the civic utilities received a letter from Chief Engineer Gaby of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission, stating that it was impossible just now to give Kingston 2,000 additional horsepower from the Trent owing to the lowness of the water in that river this season. It might be done in six months. The best the commission could do at present was to increase the city's block by 500 horsepower.
