

er; but about two foliage has been so
 been worthless.
 s, chiefly old ones;
 action less favour-

rdens surrounding
 upon Mr. George
 good specimens of
 lis, where we saw
 good friend Mr.

gin was not at all
 believe that in our
 s. We examined
 of it is admirably
 he farmers would
 at it would be to

We regretted to
 ed in abundance,
 ulio. We would
 sir paying a little strawberries, are
 l in many of the lackberries, all of
 me comforts and

Saunders, cover-
 found the young
 it orchard being
 les from London.
 cherries, most of
 ndon will shortly

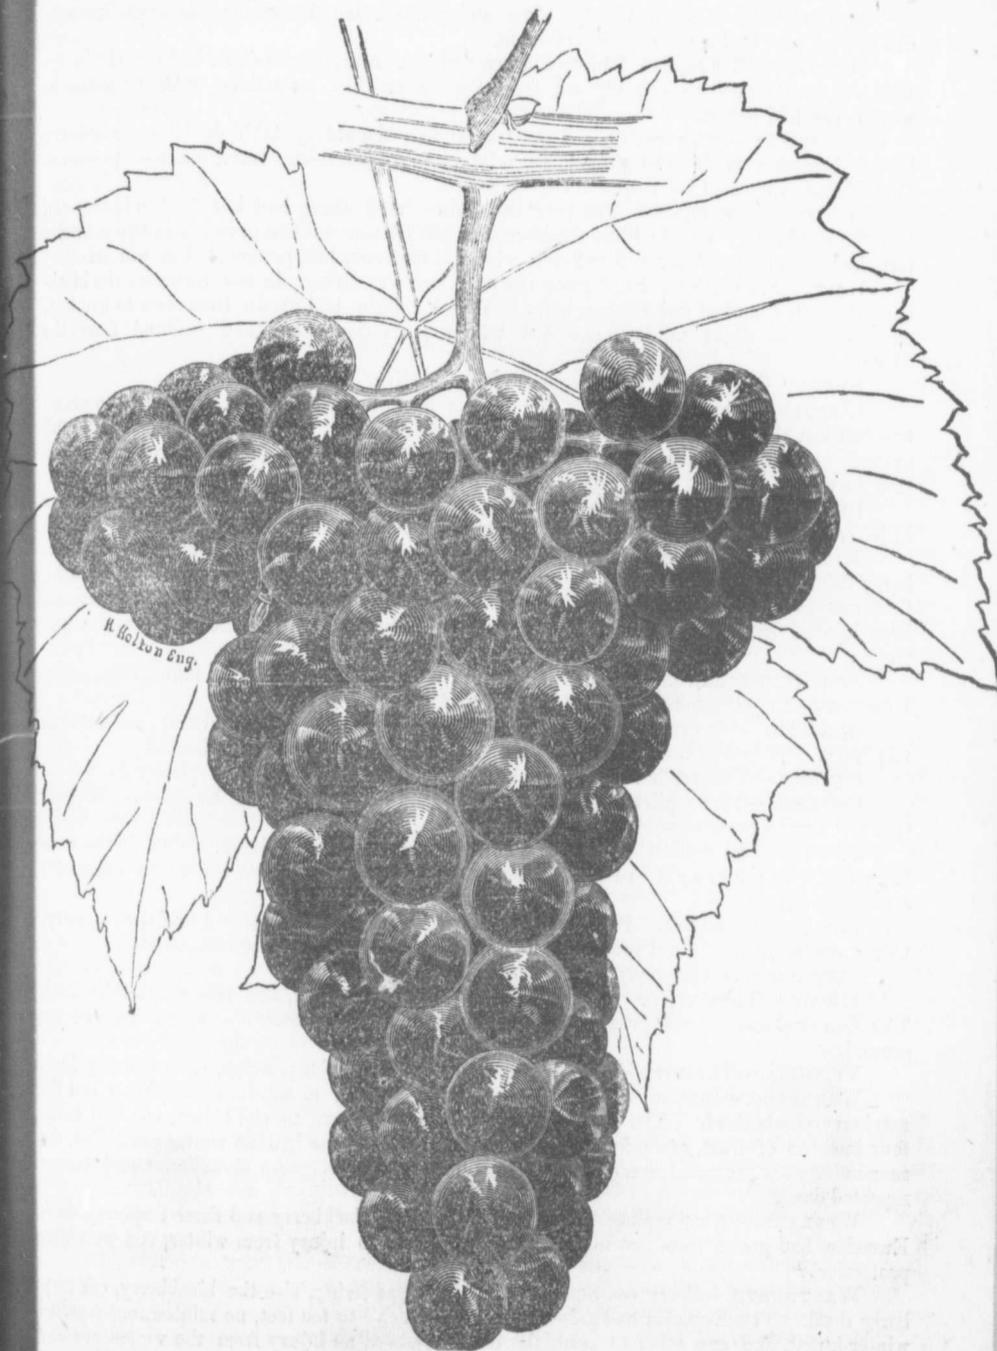

DLE,
 DERS,
 NETT.

ED BY THE

ar tree in every have lost their
 e it was winter-
 tion and others
 it not the berry

aspberry. Noth-
 berry are doing
 by the winter,

d one raspberry
 nter.

THE EUMELAN GRAPE