feverish or if tongue is coated—they are armless—never gripe or sicken.

LANDSLIDE FOR GOVERNMENT IN SOLDIER VOTE

Laurierism Reported Being Snowed Under Overseas—Reports After Visit of Correspondent to France (Special cable to the Times by F. A.

McKenzie, Copyright.) London, Dec. 5.—Canadian soldiers in France are landslideing for the government. Laurierism being so snowed under that its friends will have to dig hard to find traces of it. That is the net result of enquiries I have made during a visit along the lines of communication from Calais to Havre, when I visited hospitals, camps, depots and stations endeavouring to ascertain the real truth concerning the outlook.

There was danger a week ago that the issues might be so misunderstood that considerable bodies of men would either abstain from voting, or vote against the government, but each day has made this danger less and today it has almost disappeared.
"Laurier's triumph," you hear, "would mean the end of all the army has done.
It would mean all our victories and losses were in vain. We're not going to play the part of fools. We are true to our chums lying at Ypres, the Somme, Vimy and Passchendaele." At other places I found long arguments going in in Y. M. C. A. halls or Salvation Army huts. The soldiers freely cursed all politicians. One after another would relate tales of harm that politics has done the army, but everywhere the net result was the view that to support Laurier would only mean hitting off their noses to spite their faces.
The manifesto of the Liberal leaders had an excellent effect among this type of men. "We're all going to vote for the government, but we hate like Hell to have to do it." The army is sick to death of politics and politicians; only we'd rather be shot than support the Quebec crowd," said one blunt commander.

This feeling of resentment against past political interference in the army is widespread and everything the union government can do to assure the soldiers that it is definitely ended should be done.
There is still much work to be done in combating ignorance about the election.
At many places men are unable to learn the names of the candidates. "We don't want to vote simply for or against the government," they say. "Some men in our districts we wouldn't support, whoever nominated them. Let's know who we're voting for." This condition prevailed so late as last Sunday. The men had been told on parade about the election, instructions being read out as general orders, but very little direct propaganda work was done as military regulations make election meetings among the troops in France impossible. Even outside camps at several stations I visited practically no literature had reached the men and Laurier's agents have done less than the government's.

The most valuable election propaganda has been carried out through the London newspapers like the Mail, Express and Mirror. These, realizing the great imperial issues at stake, have thrown themselves into a daily campaign for the government and the Mirror issued a special election number.
The vote of the French-Canadian troops still remains doubtful. They deeply resent specific attacks by British press upon Quebec and attempts to depict the struggle as one between the French-Canadians and British. Any such propaganda will drive them into Laurier's arms. Battalions like the 22nd which did fine service, specially resent this. The French-Canadians with the army probably represent 20,000 votes.

Colonel Frank Reid, who is the chief returning officer for the continental election, fixed 1,500 polling stations and nominated seventy-five deputies who are taking all measures to see that every voter is brought to the polls. Captain Shaughnessy, whose electoral activities in Montreal in the last election will be fresh in mind, acts as continental representative and clerk of the court of chancery.
One of the real problems is to make provision for polling. Small batches of Canadians are scattered throughout the hospitals and depots attached to the imperial forces or living in remote districts from the Jura Mountains.
To Passchendaele I can testify from personal observation that great care has been taken by these officials to secure absolute impartiality, seeing that every soldier has the right to vote as he pleases. Stories of intimidation which, I understand, are being circulated in Canada, are absolutely false.
Two arguments are being freely used among the troops against conscription.
The first is why should one brother left at home to help the old folk be forced into the army. This argument at one time loomed so big that men began canvassing for votes against the government but it has been killed by careful detailed statements of the real facts and by assurances that such cases will be exempt. The second argument is "why should I vote for conscription of other Canadians when Germans and foreigners in Canada are allowed to continue safely on their farms making fortunes and called up to do nothing." But the general attitude is summed up in the

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET

A Well Known Actress Tells How She Darkened Her Gray Hair With a Simple Home Made Mixture.

Miss Blanche Rose, a well-known actress, who darkened her gray hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Oriz Compound, and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a gray haired person look 20 years younger. It makes the hair soft and glossy, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

SUPPORT UNION GOVERNMENT

Women of Canada: "Be True to the Boys At the Front"

Sir Robert Borden in his manifesto says: "The franchise will be extended to women, not chiefly in recognition of devoted and capable service in the war, but as a measure of justice too long delayed. If men die, women suffer; if they are wounded, women heal; if they are maimed, women labor."

The franchise is extended to the women relatives of fighting Canadians, in order that they may help hasten Victory and bring the boys back from the trenches covered with the glory they have won.

A Vote for a Unionist Candidate Is a Vote for Reinforcements

The Union Government is pledged to carry on its work of raising the 100,000 reinforcements so urgently needed to support the Canadians at the front. Laurier and his adherents would stop this work, take a referendum, and experiment with voluntary enlistment, the possibilities of which have been exhausted. The most clear-headed, right-minded Liberals have gladly and without coercion helped to form the Union Government; they have weighed the pros and cons, they have not allowed politics to interfere with their patriotism, or their promise to our brave boys in France to "see them through."

WOMEN WHO CAN VOTE

Every woman may vote who is a British subject, 21 years of age, resident in Canada one year, and in the constituency 30 days, who is the mother, wife, widow, daughter, sister or half-sister of any person, male or female, living or dead, who is serving or has served without Canada in any of the Military forces, or within or without Canada in any of the Naval forces of Canada or of Great Britain in the Present War, or who has been honorably discharged from such services, and the date of whose enlistment was prior to Sept. 20th, 1917.

Such women should vote for the Unionist Candidate to ensure prompt reinforcements at the front.

Every ounce of strength in Canada should be exerted to help right a monstrous wrong the Prussian hierarchy would inflict upon the world. That is why the vote is placed in the hands of those most dear to our soldiers, trusting that the wifely love, and motherly devotion, and sisterly care, will vote as the boys would vote to carry on the work begun, and so far continued in the heroic spirit of self-sacrifice.
