

of Mrs. McGee is accepted, for twenty-five years her work of love has been, from Sunday to Sunday going on, constant and faithful.

"By her life alone,

Gracious and sweet the better way was shown."

It will be difficult to fill this important position. May He who guides give the desire to one capable of sowing the seed that will bear fruit for this life and for the great hereafter.

To our Solicitor, Mr. Neville we feel grateful thanks are due, for courtesies and wise counsel.

To Mr. Richard Lee for kindness in auditing the Treasurers statement.

To the Ontario Government and City Council, for grants towards the maintenance of the Home. To the city press, for kind and timely reports of our work. To Messrs. Foster & Pender, for kindness in loaning rugs, etc. To Mrs. Coleman, for continued weekly bounty, and to all tradesmen and other generous friends, we feel our indebtedness and offer grateful thanks.

Most heartily do we thank the Toronto Railway, Steamboat Companies, and the Exhibition authorities, through whose medium, happy days were spent at the Fair, High Park and on the Island, also an exceptionally lovely sail to Hamilton, all of which was most thoroughly appreciated as only young people know how to enjoy such outings.

He who promised reward for a cup of cold water given in His name will not forget these kind friends in their acts of love.

The Matron and her assistants have our esteem and confidence. Mrs. Bright still proves herself to be the Mother of the Home, winning love and respect, ever watchful, guiding, managing—well suited for the responsible position.

"O' the toils of life—how small they seem when loves restless tide
Sweeps brightly over them, like the scattered stones
Within a mountain streamlet, they but serve
To strike the hidden music from its flow
And make its sparkle visible.
