

POOR DOCUMENT

U. S. ELECTIONS

A Great Day for Republicans.

They Make Large Gains in Several States, in Massachusetts, New York, Ohio, Iowa, and Pennsylvania.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The Democratic state committee concedes McKinley's election by from 50,000 to 75,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Estimates for every county in the state show a Republican gain of 54,081. This, with Morrison's majority in 1891 of 54,187, shows a Republican majority of 108,268. This will no doubt be increased by the official figures.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8.—Revised figures from two-thirds of the state show that the Democrats carried Virginia by a majority of not less than 25,000.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 8.—There was some heavy scratching done in this county. The American Protective Alliance entered into the campaign with much vigor and displayed marked tickets showing candidates who were either Catholics or affiliated with them. These candidates were considerably cut in Protestant localities. Republicans made heavy gains in every county.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 8.—Returns of yesterday's vote show that the Democrats carried the state ticket by a good majority. Republicans made gains in the Legislature.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Commenting on yesterday's election the Herald says: The people of New York may well congratulate themselves. The vote of yesterday was a thundering protest against ring rule and "boss" dictation. It is a sweeping condemnation of Maynard, the branded machine candidate for the Court of Appeals. It is the root of the ring which has so long corrupted the government and plundered the taxpayers of Brooklyn. The reputation of Maynard speaks volumes for the conscience, independence and manhood of the people.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Republicans swept the state yesterday as clean as they need to 20 years ago before anything like formidable opposition had arisen to dispute their political supremacy. Three hundred and forty-seven of the 551 cities and towns of Massachusetts, including all the cities, give for Governor, Greenhalge, (Republican) 181,296; Russell, (Democrat) 156,568; Banks (Prohibition) 8,093; Greenhalge's plurality, 24,728. The net Republican gain over 1891 is 30,640. Three hundred and thirty-two cities and towns gave Lieutenant Governor, Wolcott (Republican) 155,832; Carroll (Democrat) 107,916; Republican plurality, 47,917. The Democratic candidates for the Legislature suffered severely. There will be a very considerable decrease in the Democratic representatives in both branches. The vote of Boston was the great surprise of the election. Democrats expected a plurality of at least 15,000 and Republicans conceded 12,000 or 13,000. The actual plurality was only 9,765. The current swamped the Democrats in Boston as it did in other parts of the State. Every city in the State shows heavy Republican gains and the biggest overthrow is noticeable in the manufacturing centres.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The next New York State Senate will stand 19 Republicans, 13 Democrats. Returns up to 11 o'clock a. m. show the election of 74 Republicans and 54 Democrats to the Assembly.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—It is believed the Republican majority in the State will exceed 110,000. In almost every county in the State increased pluralities are recorded. Counties in the Anthracite coal region all went over from the Democratic to the Republican column.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 8.—Election returns so far as reported in this State show nothing short of a Republican landslide. There has been a steady net Republican gain compared with last year, when Harrison carried the State by a plurality of nearly 21,000. The total vote in the State will fall, it is estimated, 30,000 or 40,000 short of last year. The Democrats have lost heavily to the Populists. The Prohibition vote is much smaller than was expected.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 9.—Returns at noon show Governor McKinley has a plurality of 80,000 over Neal, and 30,000 majority over all three opponents. The Legislature is overwhelmingly Republican. It stands as follows: 24 Republicans, 7 Democrats in the Senate; 52 Republicans and 27 Democrats in the House. Out of 58 counties in Ohio, McKinley carried 64. The Republican gains were uniform all over the state.

PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 8.—Returns come in slowly. So far they show a uniform drift toward Republican Supreme Court candidates. The Democrats had a full ticket in the field but outside of three counties the vote for it was very light. The Populist is fifty per cent less than last election.

TOPEKA, Kansas, Nov. 8.—Nothing definite will be known as to the result of yesterday's election in this state before to-night or to-morrow morning. There is little doubt that the Republicans have won in a majority of the counties.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8.—It will be some days before all the returns from the state are in, but there can be no change in the result announced by the Democratic state committee, namely, that O'Farrell and the entire Democratic state ticket are elected by a heavy majority. Democrats have elected a majority of both branches of the General Assembly. The Populists have made an unexpectedly poor showing.

BOSTON, Nov. 8, 2 30 p. m.—The latest estimate of the complexion of the legislature shows 33 Republicans to 7 Democrats in the Senate and a Republican majority of 136 in the house.

TRESTON, N. J., Nov. 8.—The Senate stands 11 Republicans, 10 Democrats. The republican candidates won in 7 out of the 8 counties. Nine Democrats and four Republicans hold over. Assembly stands 39 Republicans and 21 Democrats.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 8.—Corrected returns of vote in Brooklyn show that Schieven (Rep and Ind) for Mayor received 88,061 votes and Boody (Dem) 59,414. Of 670 election districts in Kings county 604 had returned their votes for Associate Judge of Appeals. These returns corrected, give Bartlett (Republican) 83,298 Maynard (Democrat) 65,117.

Bartlett's plurality in the 604 districts 17,181; at the same ratio Bartlett's plurality in Kings County is 19,238 over Maynard.

JINGLES OF HUMOR.

A Little Nonsense Gathered for Lark's Reading.

He had been driving a cab for four years, and got a little bit more weary looking every day.

I can't stand it no longer, he said, at last, I ain't a-going to have any more women finding fault and claiming that they didn't have courteous treatment.

There was a woman standing at the next corner. Instead of the customary Cab, man he stopped his horse, dismounted from his perch, and going towards the carriages, lifted his hat and inquired—

Do you propose making use of this vehicle to-day?

Sir! she said, in tones of astonishment. Do you wish to ride in this cab? If so, I will gladly escort you to it. I aim to please.

Why I never heard such impudence! she stammered. I did intend riding in your cab, but I shall certainly wait for the next one. And you may expect a complaint from me at the police station concerning your conduct sir.

He remounted his seat, and pulled his hat down over his eyes.

Tain't no use! Goddud! was all he said. A post exclaims, Rained up on the roof. Of course it drops on the roof. That's what the roof is for.

When a man can sketch a broken pane of glass so that an observer will catch cold from it, he is in a fair way of becoming an artist.

'Bus Driver (to carman of van in front, which is blocking the way) 'Y'er, got on, get on! You've bin keepin' us waitin' five minutes.

Van Driver (turning round): Five minutes? Well, that ain't so long. You 'ad to wait five years once, 'adn't ye?

A young clergyman seems to have compressed the whole body of his sermon on "Deceit" into the following: Oh, my, brethren, the snowiest shirt-front may conceal an aching bosom, and the stiffest of all collars encircle a throat that has many a bitter pill to swallow.

Churchwarden Smith: Mr. Jones, are you aware that you put a counterfeit coin in the contribution box this morning?

Mr. Jones: Yes! I owe the heathen a grudge for roasting a missionary uncle of mine.

Meek and lowly in his tattered raiment, the tramp stood before the woman at the house and breathed forth the desire of his heart—

Fear not, gentle woman, said he, it is not work that I seek, nor is it bread; but I strongly crave the companionship of a shilling. Have you one?

Uncle Joe (from the country): This is a queer world.

Londoner: What makes you think so?

Uncle J: Well, a painter fellow came down to my place last summer, and while he was loatin' about painted a picture of my dog. I heard afterwards that he sold it for $50, as I brought up the dog thinking I could get at least a cool $100 for him but by jingo! I can't even give him a bay.

Prison Warden: It's just been found out that you didn't commit that crime you've been in for all these years, and so the Home Secretary has pardoned you.

Innocent Man: Um—I'm pardoned, am I?

Prison Warden: Y-e-s, but don't go yet. I'll have to telegraph for further instructions.

Innocent man: What about?

Prison Warden: Seems to me that, considering you hadn't any business here, you ought to pay for your board.

A. E. R. Crofton, formerly employed in the branch of the Bank of Montreal at Peterboro, has been arrested at El Paso, Texas, for having forged and cashed a draft which on advice from the Montreal bank at Winnipeg was paid Crofton by the first National Bank of Chicago. Jellett, another employe of the Peterboro branch is under arrest at New Westminster. He is charged with attempting to pass a forged cheque there at the branch of the Montreal bank.

During a performance at the theatre at Barce-lona Tuesday night a bomb was thrown from the gallery to the floor. An explosion and panic followed, in which fifteen persons lost their lives and a great many injured. It is believed to be the work of Anarchists, several of whom have been arrested.

Terrific Tragedy at Halifax on Tuesday.

Halifax, Nov. 7.—The sensation to-day was the tragedy on Barrington street. Three months ago a Mrs. Savage, aged about 25 and her little boy about five came here from New York and took lodgings in a house on Barrington street where she was engaged in dressmaking. She was making a very good living and was apparently contented. Last night a man called at the house and enquired for Mrs. Savage. He was the woman's husband whom she had left three months ago on account of his cruelty to her. He was some time with her last evening, but did not spend the night with her. He called at 9 o'clock this morning and renewed his request that she accompany him to New York. This was evidently intended as the last asking, as he at once drew a revolver and shot his wife, child and himself.

People in the house heard the shots and a police officer secured. He broke open the door and found all three prostrate on the floor. The boy was dead and the man and woman dying.

There was insanity in the man's family. He was employed as a card liver in New York.

Mrs. Savage died at 11 o'clock at the hospital.

LATER

All the victims in this morning's triple tragedy are now dead. Richard Savage the murderer and suicide died at 7 o'clock this evening without regaining consciousness. Mrs. Savage died just after being conveyed to the hospital, the bullet having lodged in her brain. The little boy expired instantly.

An inquest will be begun to-morrow morning. It is clear that Savage had resolved to commit his awful deed before he left Brooklyn as the following letter was found in his coat pocket—

If there should be money enough found upon my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my trunk and contents to insure a burial place for my boy, I would like to have him buried in Camp Hill cemetery. As for my body, if there is any medical college that cares to have it give it to them and oblige

(Signed) RICHARD D. SAVAGE.

Nov. 1st, 1893.

This was written in a good hand on a half sheet of letter paper.

There was no money found in any of his pockets. It appears that Savage's home was in Brooklyn not New York City.

Mrs. Savage said she loaned her husband a sum of money and the following communication among her effects substantiated the statement—

"125 Somers street, Brooklyn, N. Y., July 27, '92.

Dear Maggie: Yours of 22nd at hand, very glad to hear from you. When you wrote, I have no doubt but what you were in the best of humor. You begin with why don't I send you some money? Well that is d— easy explained. The first place I did not suppose you were so hard up for money; and the second place, I did not have any money to send you. In the third place I cannot see what in the devil you done with all your money, you will find enclosed $7—as soon as I can I will pay the balance so don't ask for any more for when I get it you will have it and you know it. Kiss the baby for me

(Signed) DEX.

Mrs. Savage's brother, John Lapham, lives in Brooklyn.

The death of all directly concerned lowers the curtain on one of the saddest tragedies in this city for some years.

In the House of Commons Friday, Mr. W. L. R. President of the Local Government, announced that he would introduce at the next session a bill equalizing rates throughout London. Mr. Gladstone promised opportunity to promote a measure for the appointment of a Board of Arbitration to prevent strikes.
