WARD WORK.

Conservative ward meetings for the purpose of electing delegates to the nominating convention are called for tomorrow evening. It is hardly necessary to impress upon all good Conservatives the desirability of attending these meetings and of seeing that representative men of good judgment and thoroughly trustworthy are chosen.

A CONTRAST IN ONTARIO. There have been seven election trials in Ontario of charges of electoral corruption made against four Liberal and three Conservative members of the provincial legislature.

With one more protest against a Liberal move set to be tried, the Ontario government is now in a minority of one, but, inspired by a stern sense of duty—as the Toronto Globe says—it still keeps firm grip on office and announces its determination of holding on until defeated in the legislature.

The suddenly developed interest of Mr. David Russell in Mr. William Pugsley's welfare is as touching as it is remarkable. Some uncharitable persons are inclined to wonder just how Mr. Russell hopes to get his money back, if he succeeds in placing Mr. Pugsley in charge of the greatest patronage distributing portfolio in the Dominion.

"TO-MORROW." "To-morrow" and "to-morrow," so you say? "To-morrow and your lips are mine to kiss."

"What if to-morrow in Death's borderland two wistful, pensive ghosts we meet? With grasping hands that touch no other hand, 'Gad pity our one wasted yesterday!'"

REV. C. T. PHILLIPS' FAREWELL. Many expressions of regret at his departure.

The farewell tendered Rev. C. T. Phillips of Waterloo Street Free Baptist Church was the occasion of a spontaneous and universal expression of regret at his departure.

HOW TO GET CHEAP RATES. An example of the malicious falsities that are being served up in the Liberal newspapers just now, is the statement of Mr. Sifton's organ, the Manitoba Free Press, that the Conservative party in its opposition to the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme, is acting solely in the interests of the C. P. R.

RUSSIAN LADY AND THE WAR. An amusing incident is reported from Koenigsberg, showing the feeling aroused by the Russo-Japanese war.

CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS HERE. Charles G. D. Roberts, the well known Canadian poet and author, arrived in the city yesterday and leaves today for Fredericton.

"Why do you call it a French opera?" "Why not?" "Because every blessed one of them sang in Italian."

"On the stage, yes; but what does that amount to? All the gowns and the boxes were from Paris."—Philadelphia Press.

A woman gets so earnest about convincing her friends how smart her husband is that she almost believes it herself.

THE PEOPLE IN THIS CITY who first "got acquainted through a want advertisement" would make a pretty big crowd.

Very often the man who "can't get a job" and the man who don't want a job, are nearer akin than twin-brothers. The man who has not tried the want columns thoroughly, and who still says that he can't find work, has taken the first degree in the Order of the Sons of Heat.

PULP MILL FOR SALE.

Property and works of The St. John Rapids Pulp Company, Limited (in liquidation), situated at Mispep, Saint John County, New Brunswick.

The Mill Property of the Company comprises over three hundred acres. Works are situated on the Mispep River, a quarter of a mile from the sea and six miles by water from the City of Saint John.

The wharf accommodation is simple. Works are new and substantially built of pressed brick, fitted with modern and up to date appliances, including electric plant, and are capable of producing two hundred tons of pulp per week.

There is room in the present building for additional plant, which when installed would double the output. The mill dam is substantially built of stone and is about fifty feet high. The water is taken to the turbine wheel in an iron flume five feet in diameter, which gives ample supply for driving machinery and pulp making.

Tenders for purchase of above described property will be received by the undersigned up to October first, 1904, the highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Further information will be supplied on application.
