DEATH OF WM I MCCILLY For Thirty Years Postmaster of Truro

William McCully, for thirty years the postmaster of Truro and a highly esteemed citizen of that town, died or Sunday morning. He had been in poor health for some time.

Mr. McCully would have been set enty-five years old on the 9th of November. He was a native of Trure and for some years was engaged i business there until, in 1871, he was appointed to the postmastership. He longed to the old school of liberals and until he became postmaster he was active in all political contests.

Mr. McCully probably served longe than any other postmaster in Nov Scotia. At the time of the visit of the Prince of Wales to that province in 1860 he was a captain in the Rothesay Blues, and was one of the three man shals who took part in the royal re ception.

Mr. McCully leaves a widow and four children-Chas. A. McCully, Mrs Florence G. Clarkson, Miss Bligabeth A. McCully and Miss Louise H. Mc Cully. The last mentioned lady is well known missionary in Corea from the Presbyterian church of Canada The postmaster's duties at the Trur attended to by Mrs. Clarkson.

FREDERICTON BOY ON THE STAGE.

A party of Lynn people, mostly members of the Fourth of July Club had a very pleasant theatre party, at Salem theatre, Tuesday evening. The object of the visit was to see John E. Gilbert, a member of the club, who is also a member of the Thomas E. Shea Company, appear in the role of Hans the old poacher, in The Bells, or the Murder of the Polish Jew. Mr. Gilbert has been a member of the Shea com pany for some years.

The party left Lynn by special elec tric. The men of the club took advantage of the occasion to present Mr. Gilbert with a gold headed cane, suitably inscribed, from the Fourth of July Club, while the ladies also had a gift, a handsome silk umbrella. These articles were handed Mr. Gilbert on the stage when the curtain went up plause. The party was arranged by Dr. and Mrs. James Castle.-Lynn, Mass., Item.

Mr. Gilbert is a Fredericton boy who is making his way upon the stage, and his many friends here will learn with pleasure of his success and popular ity. SCHOONER BURNED.

NORTH SYDNEY, Oct. 25.-The Gloucester schooner Helen M. Gould, owned and commanded by Captain Sol Jacobs, the famous New England fisherman, was burned to the water's edge while lying at her anchorage in the harbor today. A man from shore, while going into the engine room with the engineer, threw a lighted match into a quantity of gasoline, the flames rushed up, and the engineer was severely burned. When the crew heard the alarm they rushed on deck, without stopping to save any of their effects, launched the boat and rowed shore. They were afraid of the gasoline, of which the ship carried a large quantity. If the crew had made an attempt to quench the fire at this time their efforts would doubtless have been successful. After the fire had been raging in the cabin for about an hour, the tug Daisy put off, with Capt. Jacobs on board, and succeeded in saving the two seines. The fire burne briskly until the vessel was destroyed. but no explosion took place. years ago today Capt. Jacobs lest his vessel, the Ethel M. Jacobs.

WILLIAM MCKEEN DEAD.

William McKeen, formerly of this city, died on the afternoon of the 16th inst. in the Missoula, Mont., hospital. Death resulted from typhoid fever. Mr. McKeen had not been strong for a year or more, but had been able to attend to his business affairs. A few weeks ago his partner, Herb McQuarrie, died from typhoid fever and soon afterward Mr, McKeen was stricken. All that was possible to do was done for him, but for two or three days he had failed rapidly. The funeral was held on Friday the 18th. Mr. McKeen was 72 years of age. He was born in York County, New Brunswick, and first went to Montana in 1881. He engaged in the sawmill business for a couple of years and was successful. Returning to Canada, he located at Woodstock, N. B., but went back to Montana in 1885. Since that time he has coroner's court and told her story in a firm voice, but the nervous strain tinues to be the Cape Colony, and was too great. MARRIED IN NEW YORK. George Hare, C. E., son of the late George Hare, and Miss Grace Manning, second daughter of Edward Mann ing, secretary of the Board of School Trustees, were married in New York city on Thursday by Rev. W. Nichols in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hare left for Montreal to visit the groom's brother, Chas. Hare. In a few days they will leave for their home in Kansas City, Missouri. Since his removal from this, his native city, George Hare has succeeded wonderfully in his chosen vocation, that of civil engineering. He is now engaged with Messrs. Weddell & Hedricks, iron bridge builders of Kansas City, their staff of engineers alone numbering thirty-two. In a short while Mr. Hare will be one of the superintendents in the building of a oridge across the mouth of the Fraser River, from Vancouver to New Westminster.

Mrs. Hare, who left St. John a few veks ago, was one of St. John's leading musical young ladies, and it was with much regret her large number of friends parted with her. Wedding gifts rom this city, Toronto, Montreal, New York and other places testified to the esteem in which both Mrs. Hare and her husband are held. All their friends wish them every success and prosperity in their far-away home.

A LITTLE PREMATURE

Speaking of the difficulties in connection with the handling of the imnense business which it is expected will be done through St. John this winter, Saturday night's Globe said : "If rumors are correct the conference between the C. P. R. and I. C. R. officials has probably solved the difficulty for it is said an agreement is pending under which for this season at least the C. P. R. will get possession of the new I. C. R. wharf and elevator. Under this arrangement, if it is consummated, the C. P. R. will send a portion of its freight across the bridge and a ortion to Sand Point. It will naturally follow that there will be a further rearrangement of the berths under which certain of the lines will come to the east side wharves and receive as much as possible of their cargo there, although it may sometimes be necessary to transfer a steamer to Sand Point for cattle, or other portion of her cargo. The Long wharf gives mmodation for two 500 foot steamers and if they are used in conjunction with the Sand Point properties, will give the C. P. R. splendid terminal facilities. The use of the I. C. R. elevator will be included in the arrangement and so ships will be able to get both their grain and package freight on this side."

A Sun reporter saw Mr. Oborne, the superintendent of the Atlantic division of the C. P. R., last night. Mr. Oborne thought this statement a little premature. There may have been a confer ence between Mr. Bosworth of the C. P. R. and Mr. Tiffin of the I. C. R., but he did not think anything had actually been determined upon. There were no details for publication as far as he knew at all events.

A point which is much discussed among those here who are interested in the case is what shall be done if the brigands insist on being paid the £25,000 which they at first demanded. Scarcely half that sum is available thus far, and it is believed that should an agreement on reduced terms be impossible, the offer of a less sum than £25,000 will be withdrawn, even at the cost of the life of Miss Stone.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Gregory M. Tsilka, husband of the weman heid captive with Miss Ellen M. Stone by Bulgarian brigands, in a letter dated Salontea, Turkey, Oct. 7, and received today by the Rev. Howard A. N. Briggs, pastor of Waverly Congregational church, Jersey City Heights, says:

"My Dear Briggs—On Tuesday, the lst, a week ago, a large party of us were travelling from Bonsko to Diumajo. On our way we found ourselves surrounded by a band of armed men, about 30 in number, all armed with the latest rifies. They demanded our surrender, and then made us climbup a thick forest. After half an hour or more, we were ordered to sit down. Then they chose Miss Stone, an American missionary, and my wife, and taking two of our horses, they went further in, while they kept us, the rest, till the next morning, so that we could not go and report to the government. Just at the time, before the taking of the ladies, we had to witness a most terrible thing. They had captured at the same time, a little before or after, we don't know, a Turk, and while they tied his hands back, they were beating him with the backs of their rifles, and finally, taking his own knife, they stabbed him seven times, ard he felt dead.

for a large and profitable business for the railway which the company is building from Chipman to Gibson.

That part of the railway from Chipman to Newcastie is now under construction, and it is expected to have it in operation by the first of January. Much difficulty is being experienced in getting laborers, even though high wages for that class of labor are offered. Operations are being retarded on this account, and many more men than are now at work would be employed if they could be secured. As soon as the line is completed to Chipman the company will have an outlet for the coal, connection being had over the Central railway from Chipman to Norton with the Intercolonial railway. It is anticipated that as soon as an outlet by rail to the markets is furnished for the coal, that the business will see an immediate and tremendous cevelopment.
